Crushing Blow Is Dealt Rumanians

Provisional Government On Island Is Accepted

THE FIRST AND SECOND ARMY IS VIRTUALLY ANNIHILATED, CLAIMED

Berlin, Oct. 16.—(By wireless to Sayville).—The Rumanian second army in its retreat in Transylvania lost approximately two divisions, says the Overseas News Agency. "The Rumanian first army and the larger part of the second army have been virtually annihilated."

"When the successful attack was made on the first army at Hermannstadt by the Austro-German troops the Rumanians planned to send the second army to its assistance. This plan was learned from reports of aviators which were found. The second army advanced too far to the west and was ordered to retire in haste. The retreat became a panic flight. On October 13, isolated detachments were still being rounded up. Captured officers say the army was completely disorganized. It would have been annihilated if Rumanian reinforcements had not been hurried in through the Torsberger and Predal passes."

The Rumanian leaders lost their sense of decision. Brigades and regiments in desperation were moved hastily forward and back on railroads and even in cars. Pitiful fragments of the army could be rescued from Transylvania.

Transylvania today is silent of the Rumanians, except for small sections near the border. At the same time the Rumanians' hopes of obtaining assistance from the people of Transylvania have been frustrated. The entire Transylvanian population and the better Rumanian element feel that they have been delivered from a nightmare, as the Rumanians have been expelled after a short reign of terror."

London, Oct. 16.—Tentative pressure against the Rumanians along the Transylvanian frontier continues unabated according to the latest official reports and at one point at least, King Ferdinand's forces have been driven back well within their own territory. This crucial point of the Rumanians lies southwest of Kronstadt in the Southern reaches of the Torsberger Pass where they are making a determined stand at Bucuru, some seven miles south of the border. The Tentative thrust here is aimed in the direction of Bucharest, which lies 75 miles across the Rumanian plain from its edge at Campulung, ten miles southwest of Bucuru.

74 AEROPLANES WINGED BY TEUTONS

Berlin, Oct. 16.—(by wireless to Sayville).—Seventy-four hostile aeroplanes, of which 21 were French and 53 were British, were shot down by the Germans during the month of September, according to an exact list compiled by the German military authorities, says an Overseas News Agency statement today.

ern France the entente forces are keeping up their unrelenting drive.

The French last night after having checked German counter-attacks on the positions won Saturday in their "rocketing" attempts around Chaulnes, south of the Somme, resumed the offensive north of the river. According to Paris today they succeeded in penetrating German positions at Saillly-Saillisset pushing up to the edge of the Bapaume road. Renewed fighting brought on, by a German counter attack was in progress when the official report was issued.

The British recently have been advancing in the vicinity of the Staff redoubt and the Schwaben redoubt in the Thiepval region on their northern flank. Last night the Germans made a strong attack on the British positions near the Schwaben fortifications. They were beaten back with heavy losses, the British war office declares.

In Macedonia the entente forces have resumed their strong offensive south of Monastir. Sofia declares the Bulgarians frustrated attempts on their lines west of the Monastir-Florina Railway line and in the bend of the Struma on the eastern end of the Macedonian front the British have pushed their outposts further toward Demir-Hissar, patrols having entered the town of Bursuk eight miles southwest of Demir-Hissar.

Tentative Take The Offensive

Petrograd, Oct. 16.—(Via London).—Heavy forces of Tentative troops have assumed the offensive south of Dorna Watra in the Southern Carpathians near the Junction point of the Rumanian, Transylvania and Bukovina boundary lines, the war office announced in today's official statement.

Hard fighting continues in Galicia north and south of the Struma without either side making an advance, says the statement which also reports the repulse of strong attacks further south in the region of Kormoz and Kiriabara, northwest of the Dorna Watra region. The Russians took nearly 1,200 prisoners.

Russian Attacks Are Repulsed

Berlin, Oct. 16.—(Via London).—Strong attacks were made by the Russians yesterday in Volhynia, west of Lutsk. Today's official announcement reports that these assaults broke down with severe losses for the Russians.

German Claim Ground Recaptured

Berlin, Oct. 16.—(Via London).—British troops yesterday attacked the German positions northeast of Guedecourt, three miles south of Bapaume and penetrated the German first line, but the ground was recaptured after a counter attack, says the official statement issued today by the (Continued On Page Six)

British Take Prisoner For Every Yard Of Ground

(Copyright 1916 by The Associated Press)

BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE, Sunday, Oct. 15.

(Via London, Oct. 16).—In completing the capture of Schwaben redoubt, on the ridge above Thiepval, the British took a prisoner for every yard of front or

280 for a front of less than 300 yards, not to mention the number killed by the artillery preparation and in hand to hand fighting before the survivors surrendered. The Germans manning the trench and those in the reserve dugouts could hardly have been crowded into one line back of the parapet. This gives an idea of the importance the Germans attached to that last bit of high ground along their old trench line south of the Ancre on the Thiepval ridge which their desperate resistance characterized as a most precious two-acre plot in all France.

After the British got the first half of the redoubt the Germans made repeated counter-attacks to recover possession of it and for the last week there had been no cessation of the fighting. Now the British look down all along the valley to Grandcourt and it is impossible, apparently, for the Germans to maintain batteries in that area.

Between the new British positions and the river along the old front line fortifications, German infantry, commanded by British guns from two sides, still stick to their maze of trenches, going and coming like wood chucks through their underground galleries. A German prisoner reports that in this neighborhood there is a record size dugout capable of holding 2,500 men.

"They do hate to leave their happy homes, which they have been two years building," said a British soldier.

The big garrisons which the Germans maintain for the most part, keep to their dugouts, rushing out when there is any recess in the shell fire, trying to repair the damage done. When they are observed the British guns let loose and only the dugouts are intact. British infantry then charges to gain another section of ground.

In taking the remaining uncaptured portion of Staff redoubt in the same region, the British took one hundred prisoners with a loss of 35 men. Along the center of the battle line the British have made some attacks in the last week, though not in great strength. They succeeded in some places and failed in others against the heavy German resistance. On the whole, it was the quietest week since the beginning of the Grand offensive.

MOB STORMS JAIL, NEGROES LYNCHED, BODIES BURNED

RUMANIANS CHARGED WITH CRUELTY

Berlin, Oct. 16.—(Wireless to Sayville).—Austro-Hungarian authorities charge violations of international law and atrocities against the Rumanians in Transylvania, according to the Overseas News Agency which gives the following summary of an official statement.

"In Fogaras portions of Hungarian and German population hopelessly intoxicated after collecting all liquors in Fogaras in was rounded up by the Rumanians driven to the bank of the river Alt and then forced into the water with knouts. Rumanian soldiers stood on both banks and drove those who tried to reach the land back into the river, which at this point is many metres deep. The Rumanian soldiers who participated in these atrocities are said to have been hopelessly intoxicated after collecting all liquors in Fogaras in was rounded up by the Ruman-

HUGHES CLAIMS FARMERS IGNORED BY DEMOCRATS

Hastings, Neb., Oct. 16.—Charles E. Hughes today told a crowd of farmers here that the Democratic administration had ignored the agricultural interests of the country in urging the enactment of the Adamson law. The nominee in support of his contention cited a telegram from President H. N. Pope, of the Texas Farmers' Union to President Wilson requesting that the farmers be permitted to submit data in arbitration proceedings between the railroads and their employees.

Mr. Hughes also referred to invisible government.

"Those who are declaiming to the American public invisible government had better remember that when I was an executive responsibility in the state of New York there was no invisible government in that state."

WILSON CHEERS GREET TEDDY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 16.—All on his arrival here. The Roosevelt meeting had been carefully staged by the Hughes managers on the theory that his handling of the anthracite strike situation in 1902 had endeared him to the miners and would insure him such a reception as to impress and convince wage-earners all over the country.

Instead of that the colonel came to a town so seething with Wilson sentiment that it took the threat of armed force to guarantee him even the traditional courtesy and hospitality due to a prominent citizen. It was not that the miners disliked Roosevelt. They were for Wilson and wanted the world to know it.

TO SPEAK IN OHIO

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16.—Secretary McAdoo left today on a speech-making tour that will extend through several states. He will speak at Peoria, Illinois, tomorrow; Chicago, October 18; Fort Wayne, Oct. 19; and at La Grange and South Bend, Indiana, October 20. Later he will tour Ohio.

FEAR COAL FAMINE

New York, Oct. 16.—A shortage of coal is in prospect for this city this winter, according to the dealers, who declare their bins are being depleted, their shipments delayed and that the outlook for immediate or eventual relief is poor. The shortage applies to both hard and soft coal.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 16.—

Two negroes were lynched by a mob here today and their bodies burned. One was charged with attacking a white woman and the other was accused of voicing approval of his action.

One was taken from the county jail and the other was seized on the streets. Followed by a crowd estimated at 6,000 persons, a large part of them in automobiles, the negroes were taken to the home of the woman about two miles away. While one of them was presented to her for identification, the other was taken to a tree, a rope thrown over a limb, his neck encircled in a noose and an automobile to the other end.

As soon as the other negro had been identified as the assailant of the woman he was led to the same tree and the process repeated. After assuring themselves that both negroes were dead the members of the mob lowered the bodies and placed them on a blazing pile of rubbish. The bodies were charred beyond recognition.

The lynchings came after five hours' labor to enter the cells in the jail and were the outcome of an attack made Friday upon Mrs. George Rose at her home in the suburbs. The mob gathered about 7 o'clock today after hearing that the police had arrested Brick Finley, a negro, about 35 years old who answered the description of Mrs. Rose's assailant.

The mob demanded the prisoner, refused to heed the appeal of city and county officers to disperse and brushed aside the police reserves who had been sent to the scene. They battered down the jail door but found that the prisoners had been locked in steel cells. Failing to find the keys, they sent for a foundryman to cut the bars to Finley's cell. Shortly before noon he had made an opening sufficient to enable the negro to emerge. He quietly walked out of the building with his captors, who announced they intended to lynch him if Mrs. Rose identified him.

The march to her home was taken up and on the way, Ada Thornhill, about 20 years old, who it had been reported had lured Finley's attack, was seized. The cavalcade gathered in numbers as it proceeded and when it reached the Rose home had grown to several thousand. The spectators mounted a railroad trestle in the immediate vicinity of one of the points of vantage. While Finley was taken to the Rose home the leaders of the mob resolved to hang Thornhill. Pleading for his life, the boy was bound and executed. In a few minutes it was announced that Mrs. Rose had satisfied herself of the identity of the Finley man. He was hanged to the same tree and a number of shots fired into his body. Quietly and methodically the mob gathered a quantity of wood, built a fire and placed the bodies of both negroes upon it. The mob and spectators then disappeared.

TO HOLD DEBATE ON AN ELECTRIC SIGN

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 16.—George Ade and Meredith Nicholson, Indiana authors, beginning tonight are to hold a political debate on a monograph electric sign, situated in the center of the city. The incandescent debate begins with the display of a forty-five word argument favoring Woodrow Wilson's re-election which was written by Nicholson.

After running seven nights, Mr. Nicholson's words will be followed for a like period by a statement in support of woman suffrage, written by his wife. The last week before the election, argument for Charles E. Hughes' election will be flashed on the sign, in answer to Nicholson.

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS IS NECESSARY SAYS WILSON

Lou Branch, N. J., Oct. 16.—President Wilson in a "front porch" campaign speech here Saturday before a large delegation of Pennsylvanians, for the first time spoke of the necessity for electing a Democratic congress.

"The Old Guard," he charged, controls the Republicans in congress.

Referring to criticisms of his foreign policies the president declared the "vocal" part of the Republican party wanted war, while the "silent" part wanted peace in some other way than he had uninitiated it. He added that the country knew it was at peace and

"Tin Sickness"

Strikes Germans

London, Oct. 16.—"According to travelers from Germany," says the Exchange Telegraph's Amsterdam correspondent, "a remarkable disease is spreading in many parts of Germany, especially in Berlin, Hamburg, Munich and Cologne, caused by continual feeding from preserved foods. The sickness is described as 'tin sickness.' It is considered a serious form of blood poison."

LABOR LEADERS LOSE CASE

Washington, Oct. 16.—The supreme court today refused to review the convictions of four labor leaders in the 1913 West Virginia coal strike who were sentenced to six months imprisonment for contempt of court in failing to obey an injunction by a federal district judge.

The cases are another outcrop of litigation in connection with Judge Dayton's decree that the United Mine Workers was an unlawful conspiracy in its organization and operation. The defendants were members of the union and were found guilty of inciting miners to leave or refuse employment. The four leaders were Fannie Sullens, Frank Ledvinka, James Outes and Hiram Stephens.

N. & W. STOCK MAY BE PLACED ON REGULAR EIGHT PERCENT BASIS

Columbus, O., Oct. 16.—Stockholders of the Norfolk and Western have been advised from New York that at a meeting of the directors, Oct. 24, the stock may be put on a regular 8 per cent basis. There have been frequent rumors that the Pennsylvania may secure control of the Norfolk and Western and guarantee the 3 per cent dividend.

SUGGEST REDUCTION IN SIZE OF EDITIONS

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16.—Reduction in the size of Sunday newspapers as a means of conserving the news print paper supply of the country and possibly preventing the suspension of smaller newspapers was recommended in a letter sent today by the Federal Trade Commission to all the publishers of large Sunday newspapers in the United States.

LOOKOUT, NOW, VILLA!

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 16.—Luis Cabrera, chairman of the Mexican commission placed before the American members of the Mexican American joint commission today a statement from Ambassador Designate Arredondo containing the assurance that his government had planned an active campaign against Villa.

NECK NOT BROKEN

Cleveland, O., Oct. 16.—Bert Connelly, 17, Ashland High School football player, was recovering in a local hospital today from a concussion of the brain suffered when he tackled Shaw High halfback in Saturday's game. His neck was not broken, as was at first feared.

Somebody wants to know a' me what I'm gonna do election day. I haven't decided as yet, but if things don't get any more exciting by then then I'm probably take a nap. Th' Rumanians are th' 'crushed' ones to-day. Tomorrow I reckon it'll swing back t' th' Germans. Here's for tomorrow!

London, Oct. 16.—The entente allies have formally recognized the provisional government of Greece in the island of Crete, set up by former Premier Venizelos.

The entente consuls at Canea, the capital of Crete, have been instructed to act in unison in this matter. An official statement issued here today says it is only in Crete that the question of official recognition has yet arisen.

Official circles in London have received no word in regard to recognition of the new cabinet at Athens by the entente.

New York, Oct. 16.—More than 300,000 Greeks in the United States have been invited to join the Venizelos party in America which was organized at a meeting of 3,000 natives of Greece here last night. This is the first of a series of meetings to be held in the principal cities of the United States. Organization of the party was greeted with cheers and the singing of the Greek national anthem. A fund of $4,000 was secured for the assistance of the former Greek premier from whom the party takes its name. Managers of the movement said $100,000 would be raised each month.

The present Greek government was condemned and pledges of allegiance to Venizelos was given. Resolutions were adopted resolving that the "government of King Constantine has abandoned more than $300,000,000 worth of forts and munitions in Macedonia and allowed the fourth regiment to be kidnapped and has thus dishonored Greece and all Hellenism. It has cast a stain on the national honor of Greece and its policy threatens the extinction of the nation." Greek colonists in America were urged to use their influence to induce parties of Greece which have not already done so to join the national movement "to expel the enemies who abolished the Greek sovereignty in Macedonia and to defeat and cast out the demagogues now surrounding the king." A committee of 1,000 was formed to carry on the work of the organization.

SAW NO U-BOAT

New York, Oct. 16.—In a wireless message from the Danish steamship Helliglav received here by agents of the Scandinavian American line, Captain Holst, master of the ship, stated that no submarine had been sighted during the voyage so far.

Observers aboard the White Star steamship Borie on the steamer's arrival here Saturday reported they had seen the periscope of a submarine Friday morning when about 200 miles out and that the submarine was apparently in pursuit of the Helliglav eastward bound.

G. O. P. "WORKERS" HOLD AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Members of the Scioto County Republican Executive, and Central committees, county candidates and several precinct workers held an organization "Love Feast" Saturday evening at the Republican club rooms. Speeches praising Republican victory in both the state and nation were made by Hon. Charles E. Hard, vice chairman of the State Republican Executive committee; Hon. Rudolph Archer, state treasurer, and Hon. Charles C. Kearns, congressman from the Sixth district.

Dr. Frank H. Williams, well known physician, it was announced, had been selected and had consented to serve as a member of the State Executive committee.

Charles W. Wilson, chairman of the Central committee, opened the meeting with a short business session at which committeemen for two precincts were selected. Leo York was elected to serve in Precinct K, of the Fourth ward, in place of John Clark, who moved to Detroit, Mich. Frank Bennett was appointed in Precinct A, Fourth ward, to succeed Al Yeager, who moved to another precinct.

The committeemen and workers gathered at the hall early and shortly after eight o'clock were seated at the banquet tables, which were in the shape of a huge U. The speakers and county candidates were at the base of the U.

John F. Eckhart, chairman of the executive committee, presided. The Aeolian Quartet rendered several selections and then the feast was served by a dozen white coated waiters. Julia Pfau served the feast.

The menu included: Oyster cocktail, fruit salad, potato salad, sandwiches, roast mutton, celery, radishes, pickles, brown bread, cranberry sauce, oyster dressing, baked beans, coffee and cakes. An ovation was paid Mr. Pfau for the feast served.

One of the most striking songs rendered by the Aeolian Quartet was a parody on the principal candidates for the November election. It was:

Our country once was proud and great
And stood for what was right
But since the Democrats got in
We've been too proud to fight.
The Democratic rooster

Flaps his wings and starts to crow
But when it comes to fight
He runs from little Mexico.

Ohio has a senator
Who's making a campaign
And says the people surely ought
To send him back again.
He's got a funny Chinese name
It's Atlee Pomerene.
But wait until he runs against
The Herlick submarine.

We thought that Jimmie Cox was
Licked
So bad a while ago
That he would never have the nerve

To think he had a show.
We'll bury him so deep, next time
That he'll be sure to stay
And be the last one to report
Upon the judgment day.

Chorus

Vote for Hughes and Fairbanks
Tra-La-La-La-La-La
Get into the game and follow the crowd
And fall right into line;
Oh, join the grand old party, boys,
Come in; the water's fine.

The speakers of the evening
were introduced by Chairman John F. Eckhart.

"Your chairman has paid too high a tribute to me as an orator," declared Hon. Rudolph Archer, candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket for state treasurer,
on being introduced for a short talk. "I am no platform
talker but I am a good Republican."

Thankful For Loyal Support

"I want to take this opportunity to thank the Republicans of Scioto county for their good loyal support accorded me in my campaigns. In all, this is the fourth time I have been a candidate. I ran in 1910 when we all made a noble and earnest effort but were licked. In 1912 I was a candidate again, when it was a foregone conclusion that we would be licked before we started. But we all stayed on the ticket and made the race.

"Then in 1914 I made the race
in the primaries for state treasurer, believing that I had good chances, as my name began with A, as James Faulkner would say,
and I believe you all read what he has to say.

"I did not come down here to make a speech but came with your townsmen, Mr. Charles Hard, to pay my respects to the Scioto
county Republicans for their support given me and to say that Ohio
is going Republican in November.
But it will not go Republican unless you men here tonight put your shoulder to the wheel and work
as you have never worked before.

"In 1896, at the time when we all remember that W. J. Bryan would have been elected president,
if the Republicans had not put their shoulders to the wheel and worked. The 16 to 1 silver craze was the basis of this campaign.
Free Silver as I recall it. At this time I was working at a glass house in Bellaire—I was a glass blower then. I remember that I had a young man catching for me.
He was getting all of the gold dollars he could get hold of. One day
I asked him: 'What are you going to do with them?' He said: 'If Bryan is elected I will get 15 dollars for every one of them.'

"Now the Democratic party flushed with the success of prosperity caused by the great struggle, in seeking the re-election of Wilson. Every one knows that in 1913 and 1914 during the first two years of the administration that there were more idle freight cars on sidings throughout the United States than ever before.
In Cleveland, the Cleveland
Leader had opened soup houses and means were taken to care for the unemployed. Steel plants were closed, factories were operating on slack time. Then along came the war and the transformation was sudden. But as one citizen to another, 'After the war, what?'

Clubs Gave

"Our election was won in 1896
by the formation of William Mc-Kinley clubs. There are men in this room tonight who will remember them. At Bellaire, I was asked to go to the employees and get them to sign for the Mc-Kinley club and this was done.
The campaign will be won by personal contact and it is up to the committeemen to do the work.

"I say that we are going to win
because the people of Ohio are awakening to the possibilities. In the last few days, quite a difference can be noticed. It is only 25 days until election day. There is not much time to do the work, but put forth your best efforts to get the electors out.

"We have a non-partisan ballot
this year. Your probate judge will appear on this. You have court. It is important that you give this ticket your special attention.

"These are the days of the primary election and the days of the old convention system has done away with the getting together of the Republicans every two years and it has sort of thrown the damper upon the enthusiasm. Not so much interest is taken in elections now for there does not seem to be an incentive.

"But there is considerable enthusiasm here tonight. I wish to congratulate the committee here on their work. I am glad you are really fighting and that you appreciate the gravity of the situation.

"If you don't want to see soup houses after the war closes; if you don't want to see the factories close; get out and work. We don't have them in Republican times.

"I hope that everyone of you here will take off your coats and go to it from now until the election."

Mr. Hard Expresses Appreciation

"I wish to express, on behalf of the Republicans of Scioto county
the real appreciation of the courtesy of Hon. Rudolph Archer for coming here tonight," said Hon.
Charles E. Hard, vice chairman of the State Republican Executive committee. "He is a busy man. He has a big office to run and it is not easy to get away.
But he is a good soldier.

"What he is asked to do he does.
One day I called on him and told him we wanted him to go into Belmont county and Harrison county and Carroll county to do some campaigning for the Republican party. He said: 'All right.'
He went and helped get things in to shape and came back to the office and asked: 'What do you want me to do now?' That sort of feeling is appreciated.

"Now it is up to us to remember
our state treasurer, who is a loyal,
fighting successful Republican;
the kind we like to tie up to.

"There is the man who is to make the real speech of the evening," said Mr. Hard, pointing to Congressman C. C. Kearns. "You may not know it, but he has been selected to give it. He is getting a reputation for being one of the most forceful and most effective vote making speakers in the state and he has not been in congress long at that.

"Getting back to the subject
upon which I am to speak, I want to see this district made a powerful district; one that will become a power in the state. Let's get behind this district and this county and shove them to the front."

"Another thing, this district—
the old Sixth district—has already attained influence in politics as it has never done before. The state chairman comes from this district—Hon. D. Q. Morrow—and we have just secured the consent of one of Portsmouth's prominent citizens to serve as one of the 22 men on the Republican State Executive committee. The gentlemen I refer to is Dr. Frank H. Williams.

"This honor is in recognition of his good loyal Republicanism;
one who has helped to fight the battles of the party. Not only this but it is in recognition of the most benevolent and philanthropic of all professions—the medical profession.

"The doctors constitute a profession that day after day, month
after month and year after year,
administers to the needs of suffering humanity. It is the doctors that answer the call of humanity and many times perform their work without pay.

"Then the State committee has another worker from this district in Joe Tracy. He is helping to carry the election in November—and we are going to carry it. Another is Harry Gillen, who is in the shipping department. He is making good too. All young men from Scioto county make good. They make good in everything except in getting an office and then they are not so good.

"One of the beautiful things about the organization in Scioto
county is that you don't limit it to the old fellows like me who were in politics when John Bergan was a little boy; but you have young men and as long as you keep it up all is well."

Methods of organization were then taken up and explained by the speaker. He urged that the committeemen from precinct organizations and see that the electors were registered and went to the polls on election day.

Must Get
Out The Votes

"You have got to get the Republican votes to the polls," continued Mr. Hard. "There is no use chasing moon beams. This is a full sized political fight and the best fighter will win as the best fighter should.

"The state of Maine had an election recently. The Democratic party got out in this state the largest vote ever gotten out before and the Republican party won because it got out the largest vote it ever had in the Old Pine Tree state. In other words, each party were doing its level best and the Republicans won only because of superior organization.

"We have in Ohio again, a bitter fight—one of those old time fights—but we will enjoy it. I would like to be down here on the open firing line with you fellows
instead of cooped up in a twelve story office building with a lot of papers and figures.

"Here in Ohio we are going to win because we have a better organization. What is going on here tonight, is going on all over the state. I believe that the largest Republican vote ever gotten out will be cast and that is why we are going to win.

"Organization simply means systematized working—every Republican willing to give the best that he can for the cause.

"What has been done here by the Scioto county organization has been checked up. Mr. Jackson came here and inspected the work to see what had been done. If you could have heard his report you would have been proud. He said that you were one of the best bunches he had seen and said that we were wasting our time by sending him here to check up.

"He said you brought him back for a speech and now wanted him back again. One good worker always appreciates another.

"We are going to put her over this time. Roll up the greatest Republican vote ever cast in Scioto county and the majority will take care of itself."

Congressman Kearns
Also Appreciative

"I had my attention called to one speech I made a few evenings ago when I drove from Hillsboro to Greenfield," Congressman Kearns said on arising. "Governor Willis was there and made a speech. I drove over with Col.
Morrow. While coming home,
Col. Morrow said: 'Kearns, that was a great speech you made.' I told him that I did not do much as I had only spoken for a few minutes. 'Dern it,' said Col. Morrow, 'that is what made it good.'

"In the beginning I desire to congratulate Republicans of Scioto county on their organization. There are two 'best' organizations in the state. I sometimes think that Hamilton county has an el-
most perfect organization.

"One thing that seems strange about your city is the fact that two years I did not know a single person here. I came here and became pretty well acquainted. Since then I have become well acquainted with a great many. Before I became acquainted with you two years ago I was a candidate for election and was given a great majority. Since I have become better acquainted I don't hope for such good results," he laughingly declared.

"A great industrial center, such as Portsmouth is, cannot afford to send the Democratic party back into power, for after this war business will be paralyzed unless a protective tariff is effective. Your shoe factories cannot recommence
a Democratic president or a Democratic senator or a Democratic representative, for they cannot enter into competition with the pauper labor of Europe after the war closes. America's standard of wages are higher and should be.

"Go into the city and public parks and you cannot tell the very rich man from the poor. They dress alike and are fed alike and their homes are somewhat alike.
This should be. It is a great commentary on society of America. You owe it to the Republicans and no one else because the Democratic idea of the tariff puts the labor of this country into competition with the pauper labor of Europe.

"Then men who toil in the shoe
factories each day with the Republican tariff in effect cannot compete with the European labor
because they are paid twice as much.

"How can the men of your great steel plant afford to recommend
a Democratic president, or a Democratic senator or a Democratic representative, when they are receiving from two to ten times the wages received in other countries?
The greatest steel plant in the world is located at Calcutta, India. The average wage paid there is 37½ cents a day. I do not know what the average wage paid here is but I suppose it is from $2 to $4.

"But they say that Calcutta is thousands of miles away. Yet it only takes the great ocean liners

Said Plant
Will Close

"Mr. Glass told me not long ago when I was talking to him that when the war closed and if the Democratic party was still in power that 'our plant would be closed.'

"There are 2500 men employed there. Two thousand of these, I am told, will vote the Republican ticket. But 500 will vote the Democratic ticket. I heard Mr. Glass say that these 500 men would not only be out of employment when the war closed but so would the other 2000, if there was still a Democratic administration. He said that to be frank about it, that the only reason that the plant was running today was because they were filling war orders which were used to take some man's life.

"Big Bill Jenkins—you all know Big Bill out at New Boston—told me some things not long ago. I asked him how he was getting along and he told me that they were filling war orders and were employing 2500 men. The last time I was up before that the plant was only working 500 men.

"Therefore I cannot see how your city with such great industries can afford to vote for the Democratic party.

"I believe that American capital should be a friend of American labor. They should go hand in hand.

"I had occasion to address a labor meeting not long ago. I never addressed a more intelligent or more honest set of men in my life before. I never talked more frankly. I was told that my opponent had promised to vote for any measure that they desired to recommend. I told them that I could not make such a promise and that I would not without knowing what I was to support. All they wanted was to know if I was honest. I told them that I would be in congress at least until March 4 and that if they had anything to submit during that time I would be glad to consider it. I told them that I would vote for it if I believed it was right and if I believed it was wrong I would vote against it.

"All they want to know is if you are honest. They are not apes or fools. The best blood in America is in the great mills and the great factories.

Attacks Wilson On Labor Question

"Some want you to believe that President Wilson is a great friend of labor. What has he done to be such a great friend of labor? What about the 2,000,000 or more of railroad employees today? Only 400,000 of them are remembered by the Adamson bill. If he is such a great friend, why did he forget the other 1,600,000?

"He has plowed new fields of legislation; opened new avenues,
the result of which you cannot see.
He has tied the hands and feet of every man in the United States and ennobled the railroad companies because he has taken away
your right and my right of contract. Congress dictates the hours
you work and sets the wages you get. If you want to surrender
this right of contract to congress,
then all is well and good."

Taking a copy of the Congressional Record, the speaker read an insert from a proposition submitted to congress by President Wilson for the settlement of the threatened railroad strike. It was:

"The judgment in the hand of the executive, the power, in case of military necessity to take control of such portion and such rolling stock of the railroads of the country as may be required for military use and to operate them
for military purposes with authority to draft into military service of the United States such train crews and administrative officials as the circumstances require for safe and efficient use."

"This is un-American. He would have you work at the point of a bayonet. This act was not passed. It was such that all classes would rise up and smite the proposition."

Claims that the president had kept the United States out of the war were denied by the speaker.
"If the president wanted to keep us out of the war why did the Democratic orator say that the conference held at the White House that the president believed the American people wanted war with Germany?" Parts of speeches made by Senator Gore and Senator Stone were read by the speaker. He said that the charge against the president was made by Senator Gore. It was not denied, he claimed.

"I'll tell you, who I believed kept this country out of war," the congressman said, "it was Champ Clark and Senator Stone and Senator James and some others."

Young Girl Missing

The police have been unable to find the slightest trace of Miss Tabitha Wagner, 15, who has been missing from her home 3041 Walnut street, East Fort mouth, for almost a week.

The Wagner girl, who is said to be large for her age, had been working at the upper Iwing Drew shoe factory for three weeks previous to her disappearance. It is said that some young man who had boarded at the Wagner home for a time boasted a few days ago that he knew where she was but that he would refuse to tell.

The missing girl is described as 5 feet, 6 inches tall, weighs 135 pounds, blue eyes, fair complexion, light brown hair, teeth very uneven and when last seen wore a blue velvet
hat, white silk waist, blue skirt pink corduroy coat of three-quarters length, black low-heeled shoes. The authorities of all surrounding towns have been asked to assist in the search.

Arbitration
is the twentieth century
means of settling disputes.
In time, Arbitration should supplant war in deciding differences between great nations. Acceptance of the principle of Arbitration will render great industrial strikes impossible—and even minor differences will come to be settled by this means. Impartial judges can be counted upon to render fair decisions.
To impartial judges of roofing, we will always be willing to leave decision as to the comparative merits of roofings, confident that intelligent investigation will result in a decision for Certain-teed Roofing

An investigation into methods of manufacturing would show that only the best quality of roofing felts is used in CERTAIN-TEED roofing. This is thoroughly saturated with a blend of soft asphalt—the formula of the General's Board of Expert Chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalt, which forms an impervious coating and prevents the inner saturation from drying out.

This explains why CERTAIN-TEED outlives ordinary roofing, and why it is possible to guarantee it for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). The responsibility of the world's largest manufacturer of roofings and building papers is behind this guarantee, which is conservative, as experience proves that CERTAIN-TEED outlives
the period of guarantee.

The General makes one third of America's supply of asphalt roll roofing. His facilities are unequalled, and he is able to produce the highest quality roofing at the lowest manufacturing cost.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in a slate-surfaced shingles.
There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

GETTING OUT O' BED

It is getting around in the season when a fellow hates to get out of bed when the chilly air of the early morning raises "goose bumps" on a fellow when he emerges from the warm nest he has made for the night.

It is hard enough in the summer time. You did not retire until late in the night. It was so hot you felt better sitting up than lying down. Perhaps you tossed a good deal during the night, and when the heat and your sleep was not refreshing, so when the heat for arising arrived, you were sleepy and drowsy and did not feel like getting up. You thought then that if only the weather would moderate and you could retire early you would have no trouble getting out of bed. But here it is, the nights cool and comfortable, and still you find it a little harder to get out of bed than you did a month ago.

You awaken these mornings with one eye at a time—and turn over. The bed feels so warm and soft and fine that you are going to doze again for a second. Then the other eye is opened. You know it is time to get up, but again the bed is more nearly comfortable than you like to be in the room—and again you turn over for another wink of sleep. But you must arise; that is certain. You have a very pressing engagement—at the work bench or the counter or the bank. Always there is something calling you to get up in the morning; always the day's work comes upon you suddenly at this season of the year; always it would be pleasant to tuck in a while longer if only it were not for the day's activities awaiting you.

So you arise, chilly and cold and out of humor the moment you strike the floor. The room may be warm enough, according to the thermometer, but it doesn't seem warm enough when the air strikes your body; it doesn't seem warm enough as you lie there wondering if the time will ever come when you do not have to dash out—and go to work. Yes, it's hard to get out of bed along about this season.—Dayton News.

JUDGE JAMES G. JOHNSON

In the case of the judicial ballot, this year we do not need to consider partisanship. Happily, the election laws have been so changed that we can choose men to the bench for their learning, their honesty and their general efficiency as administrators of justice. We can no longer, in slipshod fashion, note the party brand and vote for a candidate without regard to the qualities of the man that make for the best service. We must know who are the men that are offering themselves for the bench; what they stand for in the law and better things of life. It is every man's duty and privilege to inquire into these matters for himself and to vote an individually intelligent ballot, accepting unquestioned the word of no party boss or machine.

In this connection it is a pleasure to say that there is no man more worthy of support for a seat on the Ohio supreme bench than Judge James G. Johnson, who is a candidate to succeed himself. Physically, a man of the Lincoln type, he adds to great legal learning, the rugged honesty and impartiality of judgment that make the ideal occupant of the bench. He is a man of the type to be favorably considered by any elector, with whatever party he may be affiliated.—Editorial from Columbus Dispatch, Oct. 8, 1916.

JUDGE MAURICE H. DONAHUE

Among the various candidates on the nonpartisan judicial ticket this fall, probably none deserves more consideration, at the hands of the voters, than Judge Maurice H. Donahue who is seeking re-election to the supreme bench.

He has won distinction in serving the state of Ohio, proving that he possesses and exercises exceptional capability as a jurist. His participation in decisions has been guided by justice and sensible interpretation of the law; his vision has been true; his legal opinions have been clear and concise, and his record as a whole has become a matter of pride to his countless friends.

In addition to this, Judge Donahue is a gentleman who combines with the dignity appropriate to his high office, a pleasing and genial personality.

His friends are properly urging that his ambition to succeed himself as a justice of the supreme court, is a laudable one.—Editorial from Columbus Dispatch, Oct. 1, 1916.

Now city authorities have taken to inhibiting by ordinance and traffic rules the spot lights on automobiles. If we ever hear about the enforcement we will deliciously chronicle that too.

Here's a new way of translating love. A New Jersey woman is suing for divorce on the ground that she was in a trance when she married.

Making hay while the sun shines must be the motto of the Armour packing concern. While everybody is too busy to be looking it increases its capital from $20,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 and in the future when some officious legislative committee comes snooping around there will be no finding that the profits on the capital stock are excessive.

The high cost of neutrality is troubling Norway, which nation reports that 107 of her ships have been destroyed by German submarines.

A start has been made toward reducing the cost of living. A Chicago firm is distributing free hams to the mayors between that city and New York.

It is said that Carranza has decreed that the bull fights must go. This may mean that a lot more beautiful toreros will be unloaded on the films.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.
O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Oct. 16.—George Graham Rice is having his happy and virtuous day on the curb market. A few years ago, it appears, Rice was an outcast among brokers. But now he has come back and has brought with him what is described by the fair-haired writers of sports as a wallop.

The rumor is zipping around Wall street that Rice is evening up a few old scores and is going to bring some of his persistent enemies into duress. A career teeming with romance has been Rice's. He started as a reporter in New Orleans and has made and lost several fortunes in the street.

He is again knocking on his feet as the result of promoting the Emma Copper stock. Some of his fellow brokers sold the stock short and could not deliver without going to his office and settling. It is on the theory that he who sells what isn't his must buy it back or go to prison, that Rice claims to have his fellow-brokers in a trap.

The war on Rice started several weeks ago when telegrams began reaching the newspaper offices signed by "mining engineer" and "mining inspector" that were disparaging to both Rice and Emma. The District Attorney's office is now investigating the source of these telegrams.

Page advertisements about Rice's stock backed by William B. Hedges, formerly comptroller. Rice says he has $500,000 in the bank and is willing to spend it to find out who are making the attacks upon him.

When Charlie Falls, the artist, first came to New York he was a patron of the Mills Hotel. Like others who have won success, he likes to look back to the time when the path was thorny.

The other evening he was telling a group of friends that his only objection to the 25 cent-a-night hotels was the number of suicides. "But you finally got used to it," he said. "I got so I would be awakened by a shot and a groan and would turn right over and go back to sleep."

Father Beaver Follows Advice

When Policeman Billy suggested that Father Beaver try the magic circle and see if that wouldn't get him out of the jam where it was stuck, Father Beaver was not very pleased. You remember he had tried that magic circle business once before and had been disappointed, and it was not much wonder he didn't care to try again. Father Beaver didn't care to get fooled the same way twice as more than you or I do.

But there was a funny look in Policeman Billy's eye when he made the suggestion; there was no doubt about that! And Father Beaver thought that Policeman Billy might just try, know what he was talking about. "Very well," said he, "let's go."

"There's no 'let's' about it," replied Policeman Billy, "you have to go by yourself! The magic circle won't work if more than one goes." "All right, then," laughed Father Beaver, "I'll go myself. But you'll see that it won't work, Policeman Billy. And when it doesn't work, don't you dare laugh at me, don't you dare!" Father Beaver shook his head solemnly at Policeman Billy and Graytail. You see he didn't like to be laughed at any more than the next fellow!

They promised that they wouldn't and Father Beaver set off in the direction of the magic circle. And as he slipped along from shadow to shadow, he thought about that look on Policeman Billy's face; that look that seemed to promise that this magic wish would come true.

"He asked me if I could possibly get that rat off the dam," thought Father Beaver, "and of course I said 'Now what does he mean by that?' And just at that minute, Father Beaver remembered what

Redhead had said—the magic circle would not grant a wish that the asker could get by working. Maybe, why of course! That meant that while the wish for a rat was not granted because Father Beaver

He forgot all about Hoot, the Owl, and ran pell-mell, through moonshine could make one himself, the wish to get the rat off the dam would be granted because Father Beaver couldn't do it himself. That idea excited Father Beaver so that he forgot all about Hoot, the Owl, and ran pell-mell, through moonshine and shadow to the magic circle.

He crept inside, turned around three times to the left, three times to the right, shook his front paw and said, "Snookums, snookums, book-ins, get my rat off the dam!" And that very minute it began to rain!

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Oct. 16.—A more confident tone prevailed in today's broad operations, prominent rates and specialties gaining 2 to 4 points, with greater advances in a few speculative issues.

Judging from the course of prices at today's active opening developments over a week end seemed to favor the constructive side. Gains of 1 to 3 points were registered by leading shipping issues, rails and industrials, with marked strength in Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies, Norfolk and Western and Republic Steel. Equipments and munitions were featured by Crucible Steel, Pressed Steel Car and Baldwin Locomotive. U. S. Steel soon advanced 1 1/2 on steady inquiry. Coopers were materially higher with Mexicana, Central Leather, Columbia Gas and Industrial Alcohol.

Trading slackened after the first hour but the market assumed broader scope at higher levels. Norfolk and Western made a new record at 147 1/2 also Atlantic, Gulf and West Indies at 52 1/2. Other noteworthy gains include Airbrake, Marine preferred, Pullman and Lehigh, sugar and paper issues. Advances in these groups ranging from two to over five points. Steel extended its advance and Chesapeake and Ohio became the price feature of the rails rising almost three points, secondary issues like Rock Island and Kansas City Southern also falling into line.

Activity revived in the last hour, steel and some of the leading coopers, munitions and equipments then selling at best prices of the day. The closing was strong.

German 7 Miles Beyond Border
London, October 16.—The situation on the Rumanian frontier occupies the leading position on the news and editorial pages of the London newspapers. The Rumanians, according to the latest official statement, have been forced back six or seven miles at one point into their own country. They are making a stand at Rucaru, which is a small town toward the southern end of the Torzburger Pass. At Rucaru the Germans are well below the highest level of the pass. South of this town the good road runs ten miles through a rolling country to the rail head of Campulung which is practically on the edge of the Rumanian plain and 75 miles from Bucharest.

The Times notes: "The enemy has advanced into Rumania through the Torzburger Pass and the Rumanians are fighting on their soil at Rucaru. Apparently they have temporarily lost possession of all but the southern approaches of Torzburger Pass. Further north the enemy penetrated to the crest of Citoz Pass but was then driven back in a fierce encounter. In the other passes the enemy is making no progress but until effective help reaches the Rumanian second army we must expect sparing fortunes in this district."

British Advance Their Lines
London, Oct. 16.—British forces on the Struma front in Macedonia are active on the left flank of their line east of the river and have pushed their outposts further northeast in the direction of Demir Hissar, according to today's official announcement of the operations of the Saloniki army. The village of Bursuk, eight miles southwest of Demir-Hissar, has been entered by British patrols, who drove back Bulgarian detachments. The statement follows:

"On the Struma our patrols have penetrated Bursuk and driven back enemy detachments. "A successful bombing attack on the Buk vidze was carried out by the royal naval air service. "On the Moiran front there is no change in the situation."

MUTT SHOWED RARE JUDGMENT

By BUD FISHER

Ironton Hopeful

Tronton, O., Oct. 16—A new Solway Coke and By-products plant will be erected in the city within a short time. The corporation will be capitalized at a million and a half dollars and the plant will be one of the most modern in the country. It is understood work of erection will be begun in the Southside within a reasonable time. This has been under way for many months, but is now assuming definite form.

It is understood that Ashland, Ky., stands an excellent chance of landing the eleven million dollar government armor-plate plant, and inasmuch as Ironton has made a united plea as have other cities in this section, the majority of the residents of the entire tri-state section want Ashland to land it. Such a plant would mean tremendous industrial development for Ironton, as well as Ashland.

Will Hold Supper

The Queen Esther Circle, Trinity Methodist church, will hold a supper Friday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock. The admission charge is 25 cents. The menu consists of: Roast beef and gravy, sweet potatoes, mashed potatoes, creamed peas, pickles, coffee and cream and cake.

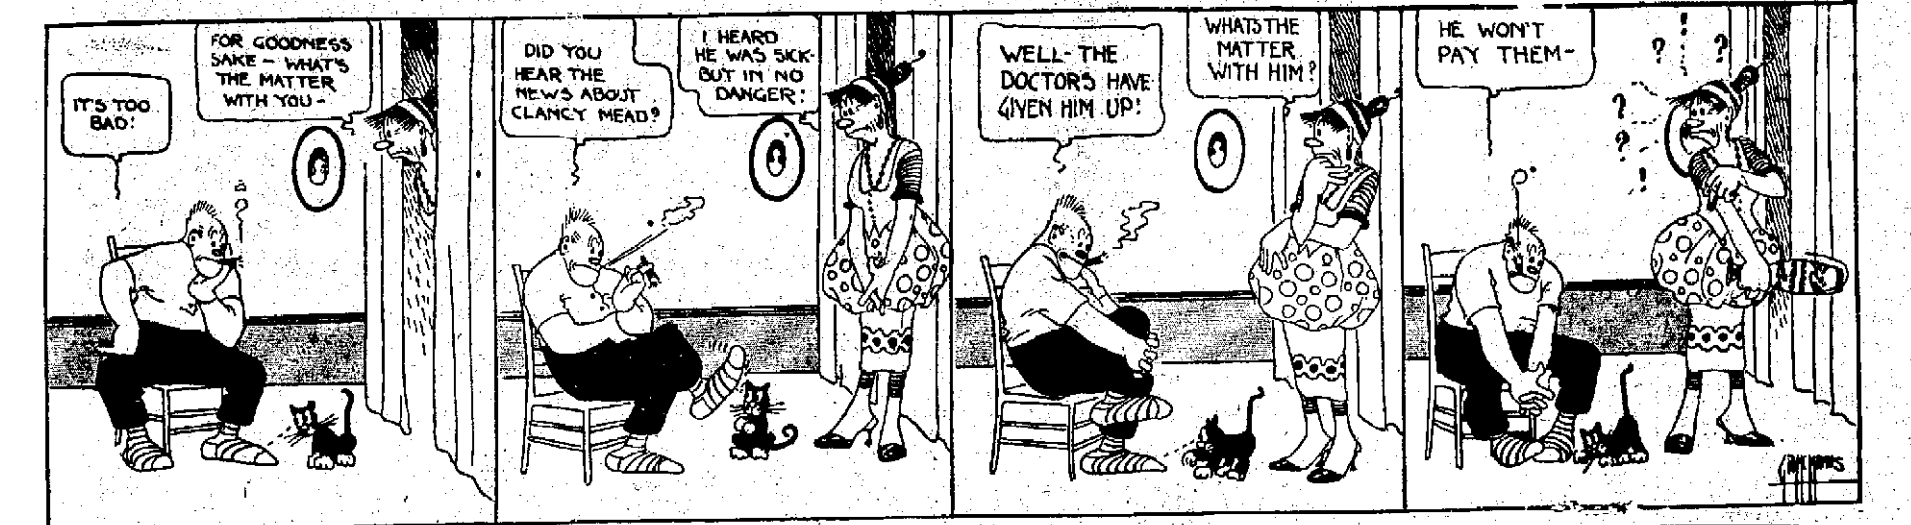

Recover Bikes

Two bicycles that were reported to the police as stolen Saturday have been recovered by the owners, Jackson Cropper and Joe Carr. Mr. Cropper's wheel was found in an abandoned property near his place of business and an Eleventh street grocer recovered Carr's wheel, taking it away from a 13-year-old boy whose identity he failed to learn.

Willis Calhoun, Sr. has completed his contract of repainting Henry Faivre's property at Third and Gay streets.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By GEORGE McMANUS

Had Gun, Also Made Boasts But The Police Got Him

Dairl and Cecil Burton, brothers, claiming to be ironworkers of Cincinnati, who made a gun play at the C. & O. depot in South Portsmouth early Sunday morning and then crossed to this side boasting that there were not enough police in Portsmouth to "take" them, were promptly dealt with by Mayor H. H. Kap-Monday morning.

Dairl Burton was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon and his bond fixed at $200. The other brother was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to 60 days in the county jail on a charge of threatening to assault.

The two men alighted from a C. & O. freight about 7 o'clock. Both appeared to be somewhat under the influence of liquor and one of them began flourishing a big blue-steel gun much to the terror of persons about the depot. Laughing at the discomfiture they had caused to these people they started down the river grade making the above boast. Cliff Saunders, a C. & O. clerk, notified the police of their coming.

Sergeant John Smith and Patrolman Armour Platt hurried to the river front. They encountered the two men in front of the Biggs house. As Smith started to search one of them the other broke into a run down the flood wall driveway with Platt in pursuit. Suddenly he was noticed removing a gun from his hip pocket. Both officers prepared to shoot him believing themselves about to be fired upon by the man but instead he dropped the gun down his trouser leg. Platt was upon him in a moment and almost stood him on his head with one hand while with the other he quickly removed the gun from his hiding place. It was loaded and his pockets were full of shells. The other brother meanwhile had tried to escape but was soon overtaken and captured by Smith. Cecil Burton Holmes, a local second hand dealer.

Telephone Company Buys I. O. O. F. Site

Through a deal that was closed Saturday the Portsmouth Telephone Company becomes the owner of the Odd Fellows temple site adjoining its exchange building on Seventh street.

The lot has a frontage of 77 1/2 feet and is 107 1/2 feet deep. It was purchased of Filmore Musser who has owned the lot for some time past. Harvey M. Allen, manager of the telephone company, said the lot had been purchased as an investment and for a future home for the telephone company in the event additional space was required, but that no building would be erected on it for another year or two. The company, however, expects to immediately claim the cellar and use it and the rear part of the lot for storage purposes.

THE MODEL FATHER

A large congregation greeted Rev. C. Lloyd Strecker Sunday evening when he delivered the first of a series of sermons on "The Model Home." Special music was rendered by a male chorus. The subject Sunday evening was "The Model Father, God's Gentleman." Rev. Strecker said: "To be a model father, a father must be a man of God. He must not only provide for the intellectual welfare of his children but their spiritual welfare as well. A man must be the moral leader in the home and should not leave the leading to the wife. He should show affectionate companionship between father and children. A model father must also be a model husband. A model husband must show careful and affectionate treatment for the wife. A man by his conduct in his own home reveals his innermost self. Oftentimes men are better in public than they are at home. A man's piety is no better than that which he displays at home. Things said by the father do not make as great an impression on the son as the things done by the father. The acts of the father are closely watched and remembered by the son."

At the close Rev. Strecker made a strong plea for clean living. Next Sunday evening's sermon will be "The Model Mother, Queen of the World." There will be special music by a ladies' chorus.

Busy Week For Fourth St. M. E.

This week will be a busy one at the Fourth Street M. E. church as a perusal of the following will prove:

Tonight the auditing committee of the church consisting of Roy Griver, J. Albert Clausen and Ralph Marting will inspect all books of officers of the church and church societies. This is done each year immediately preceding the First Quarterly conference, to which this committee makes its report.

On Tuesday evening the Woman's Foreign Missionary society will meet at the home of the Misses Bertha and Edna Griver, 1424 Park Ave. Among other good things on the program an exceedingly interesting letter will be read from Mrs. Earl R. Bull of Japan.

At the prayer service on Wednesday evening the study of the articles of religion of the church in the light of the scriptures will be continued. Members are urged to bring bible passages pertaining to the following: "The Word of God," "The Tendency to Sin," "How We are Justified," "Good Works."

On Friday evening at 7:15 Dr. F. W. Mueller, district superintendent will preach preparatory to the communion service of Sunday. At the close of this meeting the First Quarterly conference of the year will convene. All members will kindly be present as there is business of great importance.

On the next Sabbath day, Rev. George Kaletsch, the superintendent of our Home for Orphans at Berea, Ohio, will preach both morning and evening and together with the pastor wait upon the church in Holy Communion at both services. The pastor earnestly desires that all members of the church be present to benefit by this means of grace.

Auto day will also be celebrated on next Sabbath. It is hoped that every automobile belonging to members of the church or its constituency will be found at the church doors both morning and evening. There should be 21 autos in line.

The dues of the Bethesda society are due and payable to the pastor.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold a Bazaar in the week preceding Thanksgiving Day to which all ladies whether members of the society or not may contribute anything that will sell and it will be gladly received.

We were happy to hear the "Junior Choir" again after a long vacation. We hope they will be with us each Sunday.

Those who were absent Sunday evening missed hearing a beautiful flute solo, rendered by J. Albert Clausen.

Wasn't the music fine the Sabbath school? Our orchestra is surely second to none.

Two violins, an accordion, stereopticon views, books and pictures of the life of Christ and $26 in cash have been received for Missionary Hilmer of Birmingham, India.

Everyman's bible class had a pleasing increase in attendance yesterday, due to the fact that some men "brought one." And the big debate was thoroughly enjoyed. Watch for something just as good next week.

The attendance at all services yesterday was very gratifying. Let us make it a little better next Sabbath.

LIKE A NEW WOMAN

Mrs. Louise Watson of Vienna, Ill. writes: "I have received so much benefit from the use of CARDUI that I wish to tell you. When I was a girl of twenty one I became run down. I was ... caused I think by taking cold. I was in much pain at those times and usually had to go to bed. I had bad headaches and backaches and a dreadful bearing down pain. I can't tell just who told me about CARDUI, but I began to use it. The very first bottle helped me and made me like a new woman. I truly think there is no remedy like CARDUI. For forty years CARDUI has helped women in just such cases as this. Try it. It may be just what you need."

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions, concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, sorrows, etc. Address: Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 51.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you kindly tell me if Marquard ever won a world's series game at any time. E. M.

He never did.

Miss Dolly Wise—Please tell me how far the flood wall is to be built this fall. And are the people through whose property it passes to receive damages? Thank you for the information.

READER.

The flood wall will only be built as far as Offshore street this year. If the wall passes over any private property the owners of same will receive damages if they are entitled to any. I should think though the wall would benefit rather than damage the property along the river front.

Dear Miss Dolly—I see in your column where you have helped so many people and I now come to you for aid. I would not ask for something that was of no importance as I see so many doing, but what I ask is of grave importance and I would like an immediate reply in your space if permissible. Now, Miss Wise, I am a married man and have a nice wife, a nice home furnished with nice furniture such as a nice upright piano, a nicely arranged kitchen, a nice gas heater, but the living room is torn off and I have looked this town for some so my home will be complete. If you can tell me where I can get this article that means so much to my happiness. Now Miss Wise as this is my first time I have asked your aid will you be so kind as to answer it for me but be sure and answer it correctly.

RALPH.

Dear Dolly—Having read how you have helped others I have come for your advice. I am troubled with fever blisters. Please tell me how I can prevent them.

A MERRY GIRL.

You can't prevent them, but you can keep them from getting sore by using aromatic ammonia on them when they first appear. Benzoin is also good for the little blisters.

HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Denison, Tex.—"After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told my husband if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get my medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could do and I will always praise it wherever I go."—Mrs. G. C. Lowmy, 49 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

Huntington High School Smothers P. H. S. Score Was 53-0

Local Warriors Proved Easy For Opponents

Portsmouth's high school football team was smothered under a 53 to 0 score Saturday when they played Huntington high school at Huntington.

The local team was made a play at the hands of the up-river lads, but everything their own way was the minute the whistle blew.

The Huntington lads at the close did not feel like they had been in a game, but poor defense being put up by the local team.

At the kick-off P. H. S. received and the Huntington team ran the ball back to the 40 yard line. P. H. S. was held for down and the Huntington team slipped through the line and blocked the punt knocking the ball back to the 40 yard line. With four downs the ball was shoved over and a total of three touchdowns in 17 minutes. Quite a record for Huntington had the ball in the local's territory the entire game.

When P. H. S. took the field a small team, the second team of P. H. S. was going through signal practice. P. H. S. picked up courage at once and counted on an easy victory. When the whistle blew the first team of Huntington which had been practicing behind the grand stand marched forth and the local's lost all hopes of winning, the defeat being contributed to a plain case of stage fright.

During the game the Huntington team changed all players and before the end of the first half the entire second team was playing against P. H. S. Portsmouth still fell down but when the first team players were put back in the last quarter P. H. S. held fine.

The lineup:

Portsmouth: Baesman, L.E.; Perkinson, J.T.; Coleman, L.D.; Marting, R.O.; Ross, R.O.; Anderson, C.O.; T. Williams, R.E.; Jones, J.B.; Quinn, R.H.; Lett, P.B.; Shoemaker, Capt. L.H.

Shamrocks Defeated By Ashland Eleven

A lone touchdown was all that was needed by the fast Ashland eleven Sunday afternoon to defeat the Shamrocks, Portsmouth's best football aggregation. A fair crowd stood in the rain on Millbrook gridiron to watch the battle. The game as the score indicates was one of the best exhibitions of football ever staged on the local football fields.

The Ashland lads scored in the third quarter, which by a series of line plunges and end runs they carried the ball over the local's goal. Leipzig was the star of the Ashland team. The local's backfield, Pidan, Wilson and Scott did fine work.

NEW SCORE IS HUNG UP

Ohio State hung up a new football score for that temple of learning Saturday when it romped over poor Oberlin, 123 to 0. This is one of the biggest scores ever made on a gridiron and is convincing proof that the scarlet and gray should be heard from this season in the Big Nine Conference.

Shoemaker Is Injured

Captain Pat Shoemaker of the Portsmouth high school football eleven had a rib injured Saturday in the Huntington-Portsmouth game. The injury was sustained in the last few minutes of play but Pat pluckily remained in the game. He was assisted home from the train by friends Saturday night.

Fans Are Funny Birds

Brooklyn fans claim that Manager Robinson should have used Jeff Pfeffer more and Marquard less in the big games. They insist that Pfeffer had done much the better work of the two throughout the season, but then fans always did grump when their pet liked.

First quality work at reasonable prices. Brehmer, the Painter.

Dario Resta Won Race

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Dario Resta, who seems to be invincible on the Maywood Speedway, scored his eighth successive victory in two years on the local track Saturday afternoon, winning the 250-mile grand American race. His time was 2:24.16.88, and his average was 203.9 miles per hour.

Resta was given keen competition in the event, however, for Johnny Aitken crossed the wire only 15 seconds after the chequered flag, his American-made Maxwell making a most brilliant showing against the French Peugeot of Resta and Aitken. Galvin and Lewis, driving Premiers, were fourth and fifth, respectively.

HERZOG MAY MANAGE GIANTS

Charles Buck Herzog as manager of the New York Giants for 1917. Sounds rather singular, doesn't it, when Herzog failed for two years and a half at Cincinnati? Yet that's the up in New York. If John McGraw leaves the Giants, during the coming winter, Duke Herzog is slated to succeed him. The New York club officials think Herzog could lead the kind of men who now compose the club, and lead them well. Of course, nobody knows whether McGraw will shift his base during the off-season, but, if he does, Herzog is said to be already picked as the 1917 manager.

Gallipolis Wins Game

Gallipolis, Oct. 16.—Gallipolis defeated the crack Jackson team Saturday 7 to 0. So far Gallipolis has not been defeated this season.

Pennsy Is Defeated

Swarthmore slipped a surprise over on Pennsylvania Saturday, beating Pennsy 6 to 0. Graves Williams of this club played fullback for Pennsy and undoubtedly put up his usual brilliant game.

You will find, in all probability, an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding between the crevices. YOUR DENTIFRICE does not FULLY CLEAN! Loss of teeth is caused usually by one of two conditions—Pyorrhea or decay, both of which develop, as a rule, only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

SENRECO, the recently discovered formula of a dental specialist, is two-fold in its action. First, it REALLY CLEANS, embodying specially prepared, soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Second, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Yet it is perfectly safe, containing neither injurious chemicals nor hard grit.

Harvey Hill, young farmer, Pond Creek, was arrested Sunday by Sheriff E. W. Smith and Deputy Ernest Kiokey and taken to the county jail, on a charge of mistreating a step-child, Pearl Blavins, aged 27 months. The charge was preferred by Harry Ball, local probation officer, who says that the baby died the first part of the week from malnutrition. Evidence of mistreatment has been obtained, Mr. Ball says. Hill was arraigned before Squire John W. Byron Monday and pleaded not guilty to the charge. He was remanded to jail. His hearing will be held Tuesday morning.

MAYSVILLE PLANS KARNIVAL

Having heard so much about the wonderful success of Portsmouth's famous Korn Karnival, the city of Maysville is contemplating holding a Tobacco Karnival this fall.

Probably more tobacco is raised in and around Maysville and handled there than any city along the Ohio and as its farmers also raise much corn the business men have started a movement for a Tobacco-Korn Karnival to be held three or four days.

Secretary F. P. Boone, representing the business men of Maysville, was here Saturday afternoon and called on Ralph Thomas, secretary of the Business Men's Association for "pointers" as to how to hold a Karnival.

Maysville's Karnival may be held November 30 and December 1 and 2.

Woman And Boy In Peril When Auto Hits Wagon

Henry Hiltbrandt, who just moved from Pond Creek to New Boston, complained to the police authorities Monday morning that some automobile owner had completely smashed his express wagon and imperiled his wife and their ten-year-old grandson, Fred Robbins, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Hiltbrandt was returning from Pond Creek with a load of feed, when just as she was passing the R. Y. M. C. A. building an automobile shot around the corner of Norfolk street and crashed into the wagon. The Robbins boy was knocked from his seat, but hung to the wagon, his clothes having caught between the seat and wagon-bed. The horse was completely stripped of its harness. The automobile was so entangled in the wreckage that the wagon had to be lifted from the machine's hood. Feed from the wagon was scattered all over the street. Mrs. Hiltbrandt was obliged to abandon the wagon and had to lead the horse home. She said the man gave his name as Cooper, but she in her excitement neglected to ask his address. Later an eye-witness handed her a slip of paper upon which he had written the license number of the automobile. This number Mr. Hiltbrandt gave to the police, but the figures were found to be higher than any recorded in the office.

Seymour Sand company, printed with a rubber stamp. One of the firm members hesitated about cashing the check, when the negro spoke up: "Well, if you don't want to cash it, I'll take it down to Lou's." It was thought he referred to Lou Sommer, of Sommer Bros. hardware store, where Mr. Seymour's checks are frequently cashed. The check was then accepted, the negro purchasing a sack of flour and receiving the balance in change. He had scarcely stepped outside, when Alfred Schaefer noticed that the fellow had failed to endorse the check. He suspected also that the check was not good, so he hurriedly called up Mr. Seymour, who pronounced it as worthless. The negro was called in and informed as to what Mr. Seymour had said. He promptly offered to go with Mr. Schaefer to Seymour's home to see about the matter. Mr. Schaefer started with him, but after rounding the corner of Third and Market streets, and finding Third street rather dark, Mr. Schaefer concluded the man might suddenly attack him and permitted him to go, he himself returning to the store. The police were notified and began a search for the negro, but without result.

DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Stricken with heart failure while in his office in Clifton Forge Sunday afternoon, J. A. Fox, aged 52 years, for years superintendent of the Cincinnati division of the C. & O., with headquarters in Ashland, Ky., died before he could be removed to his hotel. A physician was summoned and he attributed Mr. Fox's unexpected death to heart trouble.

Mr. Fox had been in his usual health and after eating a hearty dinner yesterday he went to his office to look after several matters that demanded his immediate attention.

Without warning he pitched forward and fell to the floor. Mr. Fox just two weeks ago was made superintendent of the Clifton Forge division of the C. & O. He was well known all along the C. & O. line and was a man highly esteemed for his many admirable qualities. Before taking his departure from Ashland, employees there of Mr. Fox presented him with a solid gold watch chain and charm.

Mr. Fox is survived by a wife and several children. One son,

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c or 25c per box. All druggists.

BEFORE THE WAR

OHIO, as one of the leading industrial states of the Union, is to the forefront as to the conditions existing just before the war and the present situation brought about by the war, as it inevitably will be by what will follow the ending of the war.

The Republican candidate for United States Senator, Myron T. Herrick, tersely but graphically stated the case in replying to an inquiry as to what seemed to be most engrossing the attention of the voters of Ohio. He said:

"It seems to me that the tariff is the overwhelming issue in this campaign. It is certainly to the forefront in Ohio.

"Right here in Ohio we had our own experience with the disasters of the Democratic Underwood tariff. My own city of Cleveland was constrained to raise the sum of $160,000 to provide work for the unemployed and thus prevent 'soup kitchens' and other relief for the thousands of industrious, thrifty workmen who were walking the streets—thrown out of employment through no fault of theirs, by the Democratic tariff.

"In February, 1914, in Cincinnati, there were 22,851 experienced machinists out of employment; there were 11,200 mechanics and helpers out of employment. Soup kitchens were established.

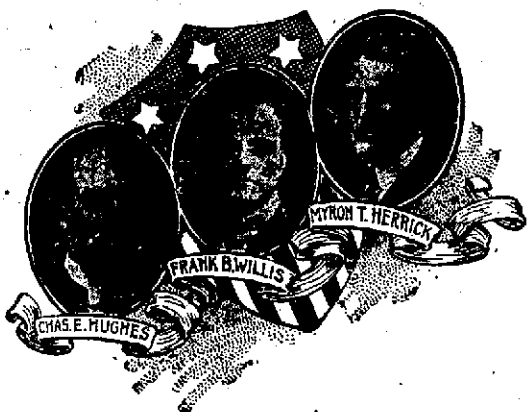

"Of the 86 manufacturing industries, 30 were entirely closed down, 10 were working only 25 per cent of full time, 33 were working only 64 per cent of full time, eight were working 80 per cent of full time, and not a single one of the entire 86 was working full time.

"And the experience of Cincinnati and Cleveland was the experience of Toledo, of Pittsburgh, of Philadelphia, of New York, Chicago and of every other large manufacturing center in the country.

"The ending of the war will turn out thousands and thousands of men now engaged in the making or handling of ammunition and war supplies of special kinds that we are sending to Europe in great quantities.

"We shall then have on our hands a LABOR-READJUSTMENT PROBLEM only less in magnitude than that which will confront Europe when its millions of soldiers lay down their weapons and turn to the avocations of peace."

Gun User Gets A Penitentiary Sentence

Chester Dillman, 34, structural steel worker, claiming Indianapolis as his home was sentenced to the Ohio penitentiary Monday on entering a plea of guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Attorney Theo. K. Funk, representing the prisoner, withdrew the pleading of guilty to the charge of shooting with intent to kill and pleaded guilty to carrying concealed weapons. This was done, the attorney said, by agreement with prosecuting Attorney Jos. T. Micklethwait. Mercy for the prisoner was asked.

Prosecutor Jos. T. Micklethwait stated that the compromise had been effected with the understanding that the whole affair be explained to the court. Dillman's actions from the time he placed the gun in his pocket until he boarded a traction car near the Star Yards and shot at Henry Koger, were explained. In concluding the prosecutor said that the case showed a "wanting disregard for the law and that it was not such that would recommend mercy."

Judge Thomas said that the courts here would not "tolerate any Jesse James acts" and passed sentence.

Following the finding of the court, a pathetic scene was enacted in the corridor of the court house when the young man's wife and little boy met him and tearfully bade him good bye.

Rifles On Way

George Carroll, Gallia street shoemaker, who is at the head of the government Rifle Club of Portsmouth received notice from the War Department Monday that the supplies for the local club had been shipped from the Rock Island Arsenal, in Rock Island, Ill., and should be here within ten days. Included are eight magazine rifles and 4,920 cartridges. They are the Krag rifle of 1898 model. The membership list sent to the war department contained only 42 names and a rifle is sent for every five members. There are now 55 members in the local club. The rifle range of 300 yards, in the Bannon-Duchler addition back of the Funk property on Kinney's Lane.

VEST BURNED BUT CHECK IS SAFE

William F. Beyer, a well known railroad insurance agent, had quite a scare a few days ago. Will accidentally set off some matches in his vest pocket. A large hole was burned in the vest before he succeeded in jerking it off and extinguishing the flames. But what worried him mostly was that he was "dead sure" that a $25 check had been in the very same pocket. It was not until several hours later that he was agreeably surprised to find the check intact and snugly tucked away in a pocket on the opposite side of the somewhat mutilated vest. And Willyum has since been wearing the smile that won't come off.

APPETITE AND HEALTH

Loss of appetite is a sure sign of ill health. Those who take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People as a tonic invariably say that their improvement began with a noticeable increase in the appetite. When you are sick and your vitality is low your appetite fails. Nothing tastes good. You take no pleasure in your meals. Under such circumstances good digestion is impossible. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills tone up the entire system, the blood is enriched and good red blood is essential to normal digestion. The glands that secrete the digestive fluids are strengthened, not merely stimulated, and you once more enjoy a good appetite. Looking forward pleasantly to meal-time is the first sign of returning health, strength and vitality.

What to eat then becomes a problem and it is solved by the diet book that the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., will send you on request. It gives the relative digestibility of different foods, gives the proper diet in various diseases and is a handy book to have.

No Truth In Rumor

There is absolutely no truth in the rumor that Mrs. Carter Brown, former milliner in the Bannon Block, Gallia street, has left the city. Mrs. Brown has taken complete charge of the millinery department of the Voecker Dry Goods Co., Eleventh street, where she expects to permanently remain. That department is enjoying a splendid patronage, thanks to the supervision of Mrs. Brown, who is considered an expert in her line.

Mrs. Cynthia Stevens of 517 Sixth street, who has been ill for sometime, is reported in a dangerous condition.

NEGRO USES A GUN TO COLLECT ALLEGED DEBT

Frank Moore, a colored laborer, employed on the new C. & O. line near Waverly, was held up on Emmett street in Waverly Monday morning. He was on his way up town to have a check for another workman, William Garrett, cashed in Waverly when the hold up took place.

John Windbrush, colored, is accused of holding Moore up for a check amounting to $128.50. He claimed Garrett owed him $3 and said Moore told him that when he got the check cashed he would pay him.

When the N. & W. depot was reached Windbrush, it is claimed, pulled a gun on Moore and demanded Garrett's check and it was turned over to him. Windbrush then got the check cashed in the Emmett House bar and then disappeared. All the parties are employed on the new C. & O. line near Waverly.

"BAD CHECK" NEGRO WAS BUSY

All of the checks were of a like amount, $12.85. The police received word that a negro was passing checks at Waverly Monday, but he was described as taller than the one who operated here.

OBITUARY

John J. McCall
Death for the third time within a year invaded a well known East End family and ended a long and useful career in the passing away of John J. McCall, aged 72 years, at his home No. 710 Campbell avenue, Sunday noon.

Mr. McCall never rallied from the effects of the paralytic stroke he suffered on Friday night. For the past three years he had been suffering with heart trouble.

Mr. McCall was born March 13, 1844, at Gallia Furnace, in Gallia county, O., the fourth of a family of twelve children. His father, Hugh McCall, was a collier. The family later lived at Jefferson Furnace for a year and then moved to South Webster. There John Jay attended school until he was twenty and then engaged in store-keeping at Clinton Furnace. After six months spent there he located at Washington, where he remained for six and a half years. He then went to Center Furnace, Lawrence county, and clerked for one year and a half. In 1873 he located in Oak Hill and engaged in the mercantile business. He remained there for eighteen months and then returned to South Webster and opened a general store with his older brother, Asaph, as partner. He, himself, took to the road as salesman for Eisman & Company, of Portsmouth, while the brother looked after the active management of their business in South Webster, and traveled for nine years. In 1885 he moved back to South Webster and remained there until December 1891, when he returned to Portsmouth and opened a grocery at No. 717 Campbell avenue, which stand he conducted ever since. Mr. McCall a few years ago served one term as city treasurer. He was a good citizen, kind and devoted husband and father and true lover of home life. He was a member of Bigelow church and was also a member of Aurora Lodge of Masons of this city and Royal Arch Chapter of Jackson, O.

Mr. McCall was twice married.

On January 1, 1873, he married Susan Cole, of South Webster, who died January 5, 1884. Of this union four children were born. They were: Dolly McCall, who died October 26, last year; Hattie, who passed away January 25 this year, and Misses Nell and Ada. McCall, who survive and are at the family home. In May, 1885, Mr. McCall married Augusta M. Griffith, of Ceredo, W. Va., who survives him with all four of the children born to them. They are: Mrs. Edith Bailey and Miss Jean McCall, of Cleveland, Mrs. Gussie Tinsley, of this city, and Madley McCall at home. He also leaves one brother, Dr. E. O. McCall, of this city, and two sisters, Misses Margaret and Stella McCall, of South Webster.

The funeral will take place from the bereaved home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Revs. C. E. Chandler and J. W. Dillon will conduct the services. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery.

William J. Shuster
West Union, O., Oct. 18.—William J. Shuster, for many years a strong factor in Adams county politics, died here last evening of paralysis. Mr. Shuster was a Republican in politics and had for years been superintendent of the Wilson Children's Home here. He was 60 years old.

After an illness covering a period of two years, death at 2:30 Sunday morning claimed Frank P. Treat, Sr., who passed to his final reward at the family residence, 850 Front street. He had been in a serious condition for many weeks and his relatives and many friends were prepared for the worst. A postmortem examination held Sunday evening by four physicians revealed a cancerous condition in the stomach of Mr. Treat, which eventually ended in his death.

Frank Pierce Treat was born in this city October 5, 1857, and he spent all his life in the River City. He was a carpenter and in his earlier days did much diving in the Ohio river and other nearby streams. In addition to his faithful and loving wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Treat, he is survived by three children by his first wife, Mrs. Anna Kuhlman, of Covington, Ky., Theodore Treat, of Covington, and Frank, Jr., of Mechanicsburg, O., and six children by his second wife, Fred, Mrs. Flora McClelland, Mrs. Myrtle Spangler, Mrs. Edith Hughes, Edward Treat and Mrs. Mabel Emmert. It will be recalled that his brother, James Treat, a well-known teamster, died two years ago.

Mr. Treat was a member of Carpenters' Union No. 427. He was a splendid citizen in every way and the news of his death will be learned with genuine sorrow. He was a member of the famous Hammer Club and always derived much pleasure in attending its meetings.

The funeral services will be conducted from the home Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the last rites to be in charge of the Rev. Albert Marting. Interment will be in Greenlawn.

Rev. Barton D. Addis
Relative to the recent and sudden death of the late Rev. Barton D. Addis, a brother of John P. Addis, of Harrisonville, the Titusville, Pa., Herald recently said:

"The many friends of Rev. B. D. Addis in this city and Hydetown were shocked to learn of his death in the W. O. A. hospital at Jamestown, N. Y., following an operation for gallstones performed earlier in the day."

"Rev. Mr. Addis served the Hydetown M. E. church the past year and at the Erie conference held two weeks ago in Clarion he was assigned by Bishop Franklin Hamilton to the church at Sinclairville, N. Y., a thriving village about twelve miles north of Jamestown. He went to Sinclairville with his son, George Addis, in his automobile last Saturday. He preached both morning and evening Sunday and was taken ill soon after the evening service."

Being no better on Monday morning, the attending physician advised that he be taken to the Jamestown hospital and submit to an operation for gallstones. He was taken to the hospital on Monday afternoon and the operation was performed Tuesday morning.

"Mrs. Addis was notified of her husband's serious illness on Monday evening and she went to Jamestown on the early New York Central train Tuesday, arriving at the hospital at 11 a. m., while Mr. Addis was still on the operating table. He rallied after the operation and knew his wife, but he gradually failed in the afternoon and passed away at 10 p. m."

"Rev. Barton D. Addis had been a minister of the gospel for the past eighteen years and was 40 years, 4 months and 1 day of age. He was well known in Crawford county, where he had served numerous churches and during the past year, while in charge of the Hydetown pastorate had become acquainted with many residents of Titusville and vicinity. He was active in the tabernacle meetings held in this city last spring and conducted a series of evangelistic meetings in the Hydetown church following those services.

He leaves besides his wife, Mrs. Mary A. Addis, four children, George E., Wilbur J., Adra A. and Paul B. Addis, all of Hydetown, the eldest being a conductor on the Titusville traction line. He also has two brothers, John P. Addis, of Harrisonville, O., and George C. Addis, of Waterloo, O., and three sisters, Mrs. Millie Massie and the Misses Hattie and Bertha Addis, of Waterloo, O. He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Pierpont, O., and of the Hydetown I. O. O. F. lodge.

Mrs. Lena Smith
Sleep everlasting came to Mrs. Lena Smith, beloved wife of James S. Smith, Saturday night, at eleven o'clock at Hempstead hospital, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis at 5:40 o'clock. Mrs. Smith regained consciousness at 6:30 and recognized those about her, but at 10 o'clock took a sudden change for the worse and never again rallied.

The deceased was born January 30, 1855, at Rarden, O., being a daughter of George W. and Ida McClure. She came to Portsmouth eleven years ago with her parents. On July 3, 1905, she was united in marriage to James S. Smith in Covington, Ky. Mr. and Mrs. Smith went to housekeeping in this city and since marriage made this place their home.

On October 8 Mrs. Smith was taken ill, but she did not take to her bed until Wednesday. Saturday afternoon she was removed to Hempstead hospital, an operation having been found necessary in a chance to save her life. The deceased leaves her husband, mother, of Hillsboro, and two sisters, Mrs. Harry Hanna, of Hillsboro, and Mary McClure, trained nurse of Washington C. H.

She united with Mary church in 1911, and was also a member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Short funeral services will be held at the home, 1528 Monand street, tonight at 7:30 o'clock, with Rev. J. F. Grimes in charge.

Tuesday morning the body will be taken to Peables on the 7:15 N. & W. train and from there will be taken to Sinking Springs, where services will be held at the church at 10:30 o'clock, with Rev. Dierl in charge. Burial will be in Sinking Springs cemetery.

RUMANIANS PUSHED BACK INTO THEIR OWN COUNTRY BY TEUTONS

GREEKS IN AMERICA FORM VENIZELOS PARTY; CONDEMN CONSTANTINE RULE

New York, Oct. 16.—More than 300,000 Greeks in the United States have been invited to join the Venizelos party in America, which was organized at a meeting here last night. This is the first of a series of meetings to be held in the principal cities of the United States. Organization of the party was greeted with cheers and the singing of the Greek national anthem. A fund of $4,000 was secured for the assistance of the former Greek premier from whom the party takes its name. Managers of the movement said $100,000 would be raised each month.

The present Greek government was condemned and pledges of allegiance to Venizelos was given. Resolutions were adopted resolving that the "government of King Constantine has abandoned more than $300,000,000 worth of forts and munitions in Macedonia and allowed the fourth regiment to be kidnapped and has thus dishonored Greece and all Hellenism. It has cast a stain on the national honor of Greece and its policy threatens the extinction of the nation". Greek colonists in America were urged to use their influence to induce parties of Greece which have not already done so to join the national movement "to expel the enemies who abolished the Greek sovereignty in Macedonia and to defeat and cast out the demagogues now surrounding the king". A committee of 1,000 was formed to carry on the work of the organization.

By winning today's race Resta also unsees the title of American champion for 1916, for which he will get $13,500 in addition to the biggest share of the $15,000 prize for the winner of Saturday's race.

There have been frequent rumors that the Pennsylvania may secure control of the Norfolk and Western and guarantee the 8 per cent dividend.

NEW YORK MAY FACE COAL FAMINE

New York, Oct. 16.—A shortage of coal is in prospect for this city this winter, according to the dealers, who declare their bins are being depleted, their shipments delayed and that the outlook for immediate or eventual relief is poor. The shortage applies to both hard and soft coal.

FRENCH GAIN GROUND

Paris, Oct. 16.—Continuing their attacks on the Somme front last night the French penetrated German positions at Sailly-Bailly and Saillyet the war office announced today. They occupied houses on the edge of the road to Bapaume. The Germans made a violent counter-attack and the fighting is still in progress.

Turnipseed Is Busy

Hon. A. G. Turnipseed, candidate for congress from this district, is scheduled to deliver political speeches in Batavia, Milford and Loveland today. James S. Cox, Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio, will also speak at these places today.

WILSON SPEAKS OF THE NECESSITY OF A DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS

Lon Branch, N. J., Oct. 16.—President Wilson in a "front porch" campaign speech here Saturday before a large delegation of Pennsylvanians, for the first time spoke of the necessity for electing a Democratic congress.

"The Old Guard," he charged, controls the Republicans in congress. Referring to criticisms of his foreign policies the president declared the "vocal" part of the Republican party wanted war, while the "silent" part wanted peace in some other way than he had maintained it. He added the country knew it was at peace and was satisfied.

The president praised the "rank and file" of the Progressive party, saying no group of men was "ever more pitifully deceived." He attacked the leaders of that party.

"The Democratic party in the last few years has redeemed the promises of the Progressive party," and of the Democratic party, Mr. Wilson added. He discussed conditions in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, saying old "political gangs" are seeking a return to power.

HUGHES DENIES THAT VOTE FOR HIM MEANS A VOTE FOR WAR

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 16.—Charles Evans Hughes Saturday characterized as "preposterous" the declaration that a vote for him meant a vote for war.

"I am a man of peace," Mr. Hughes said in a Nebraska speech, "who wants war? I don't want war."

Correct policies, Mr. Hughes said, would keep America out of war.

"That sort of thing we have been having will not keep us out of war," he said. "It will embroil us in difficulty."

He characterized as "temporary and abnormal" the present prosperity of the country and urged support of the Republican party so that a protective tariff might be enacted to fortify American enterprise in post bellum days against unequal competition.

The country was living, he said, on "the stimulant" of the European war and would not long have the stimulant.

"You might as well talk to a drunken man of the bliss of intoxication," Mr. Hughes said. Our opponents, instead of making political capital out of the present prosperity, which came up through the European war, ought to be thinking of what they did to the country with their policy, put in force through the Underwood bill. There may be those who enjoy the contemplation of that sort of thing, but they will have a very rude awakening."

The nominee assailed the Adamson bill as a "gold brick" handed to labor.

Further north the enemy penetrated to the crest of Citoz Pass but was then driven back in a fierce encounter. In the other passes the enemy is making no progress but until effective help reaches the Rumanian second

GERMANS HAVE DRIVEN SEVEN MILES BEYOND THE RUMANIAN BORDER

London, October 16.—The situation on the Rumanian frontier occupies the leading position on the news and editorial pages of the London newspapers. The Rumanians, according to the latest official statement, have been forced back six or seven miles at one point into their own country. They are making a stand at Rucaru, which is a small town toward the southern end of the Torzburger Pass. At Rucaru the Germans are well below the highest level of the pass. South of this town the good road runs ten miles through a rolling country to the rail head of Campulung which is practically on the edge of the Rumanian plain and 75 miles from Bucharest.

The Times notes: "The enemy has advanced into Rumania through the Torzburger Pass and the Rumanians are fighting on their soil at Rucaru. Apparently they have temporarily lost possession of all but the southern approaches of Torzburger Pass. Further north the enemy penetrated to the crest of Citoz Pass but was then driven back in a fierce encounter. In the other passes the enemy is making no progress but until effective help reaches the Rumanian second army we must expect sparring fortunes in this district."

Why Not?
"Why did you strike this man?" asked the judge sternly.
"He called me a liar, your honor," replied the accused.
"Is that true?" said the judge, turning to the man with the muzzed up face.
"Sure it's true," said the accused. "I called him a liar because he is one, and I can prove it."
"What have you to say to that?" asked the judge of the defendant.
"It's got nothing to do with the case, your honor," was the unexpected reply.
"Even if I am a liar, I guess I've got a right to be sensitive about it, ain't I?"

GERMAN ATTACK FAILS

London, Oct. 16.—The German last night made a heavy attack on the newly won positions of the British in the vicinity of Schwaben redoubt on the Somme front. The war office announced today that the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses.

GETTING OUT O' BED

It is getting around to the season when a fellow hates to get out o' bed—when the chilly air of the early morning raises "goose bumps" on a fellow when he emerges from the warm nest he has occupied for the night.

It is hard enough in the summer time. You did not retire until late in the night. It was so hot you felt better sitting up than lying down. Perhaps you tossed a good deal during the night, on account of the heat, and your sleep was not refreshing, so when the hour for arising arrived, you were sleepy and drowsy and did not feel like getting up. You thought then that if only the weather would moderate and you could retire early you would have no trouble getting out o' bed. But here it is; the nights cool and refreshing, and still you find it a little harder to get out o' bed than you did a month ago.

You awaken these mornings with one eye at a time—and turn over. The bed feels so warm and soft and fine that you are going to close that eye again for a second. Then the other eye is opened and you know it is time to get up, but again the bed is more nearly the temperature you like than is the room—and again you turn over for another wink of sleep. But you must arise; that is certain. You have a very pressing engagement—at the work bench of the counter or the bank. Always there is something calling you too early in the morning; always the day's work comes upon you suddenly at this season of the year; always it would be pleasant to slumber a while longer if only it were not for the day's activities awaiting you.

So you arise—chilly and cold and out of humor the moment you strike the floor. The room may be warm enough, according to the thermometer, but it doesn't seem warm enough when the air strikes your body; it doesn't seem warm enough as you lie there and wonder if the time will ever come when you do not have to climb out—and go to work. Yes, it's hard to get out o' bed along about this season.—Dayton News.

JUDGE JAMES G. JOHNSON

In the case of the judicial ballot, this year, we do not need to consider partisanship. Happily, the election laws have been so changed that we can choose men to the bench for their learning, their honesty and their general efficiency as administrators of justice. We can no longer, in slipshod fashion, note the party brand and vote for a candidate without regard to the qualities of the man that make for the best service. We must know who are the men that are offering themselves for the bench, what they stand for in the law and better things of life. It is every man's duty and privilege to inquire into these matters for himself and to vote an individually intelligent ballot, accepting unquestioned the word of no party boss or machine.

In this connection it is a pleasure to say that there is no man more worthy of support for a seat on the Ohio supreme bench than Judge James G. Johnson, who is a candidate to succeed himself. Physically, a man of the Lincoln type, he adds to great legal learning, the rugged honesty and impartiality of judgment that make the ideal occupant of the bench. He is a man of the type to be favorably considered by any elector, with whatever party he may be affiliated.—Editorial from Columbus Dispatch, Oct. 8, 1916.

JUDGE MAURICE H. DONAHUE

Among the various candidates on the nonpartisan judicial ticket this fall, probably none deserves more consideration, at the hands of the voters, than Judge Maurice H. Donahue who is seeking re-election to the supreme bench.

He has won distinction in serving the state of Ohio, proving that he possesses and exercises exceptional capability as a jurist. His participation in decisions has been guided by justice and sensible interpretation of the law; his vision has been true; his legal opinions have been clear and concise, and his record as a whole has become a matter of pride to his countless friends.

In addition to this, Judge Donahue is a gentleman who combines with the dignity appropriate to his high office, a pleasing and genial personality.

His friends are properly urging that his ambition to succeed himself as a justice of the supreme court, is a laudable one.—Editorial from Columbus Dispatch, Oct. 1, 1916.

IN CONVERSATION

When engaged in conversation, don't break in upon your companion before he has finished his remark. Maybe when he is through, you may not feel the need of saying anything further. But whether you do or not, it is impolite to do so, and politeness is about nine-tenths of the charm of conversation. Wait until he gets through. Such waiting testifies to one's character. There is a revelation of patience, of poise, of kindness that makes silence a greater argument than words. Think that what you are about to say is not very important and if unsaid will strengthen your cause the more, if you are only not so anxious to break in upon your friend. Remember "the shallow murmur when the deeps are dumb." Try to follow the example of the deeps and let your opponent murmur on. The impatient talker in society is in the nature of a calamity. He should be tolerated, but not encouraged.—Columbus Journal.

It is to be hoped the Philadelphia Public Ledger is not alluding to any one in particular when it says since the babies are quarantined against kissing this year, office-seekers are restrained to visiting the old home and reminiscing.

Making hay while the sun shines must be the motto of the Armour packing concern. While everybody is too busy to be looking it increases its capital from $20,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 and in the future when some officious legislative committee comes snooping around there will be no finding that the profits on the capital stock are excessive.

SIMPLY AWFUL

A CHANGED WORLD

It is a changed world from other days, and a better one. People are more considerate of others. They take more interest in beautiful surroundings than ever before. They are more thoughtful, more patient, more anxious to live amid pleasant surroundings than they have ever been. Which is suggested every minute in the day as one travels through the city or out into the country.

Originally only a few old people took an interest in flowers. In fact, it was considered effeminate, and no man would admit that he paid any attention to the blossoms. Few houses made any pretensions to beauty—a place to eat and sleep, that was about all the home stood for. Ornamentation was left to invalids and to faddists, and the world was busy chopping down trees and clearing the land, and providing the bare necessities of life, there was no time for the esthetic.

All of this is changed. The humblest home now cultivates a few flowers at least. Strong men are not ashamed to tell of their affection for the blossoms, nor of their devotion to the birds. There has been a general tendency for some years toward the ornamental in home construction, and the environment is being beautified everywhere.

Out in the country the farmers pay more attention to their barns and outhouses as well as to their homes. One finds beautiful lawns in front of many farm homes, and rough fences are discarded and unsightly outbuildings are taboed. The country folks are acquiring the habit of improving their property just as is the city dweller, and it all goes to make a better and a brighter world. But, above all, it goes to make a more thoughtful, a more considerate people. For where one takes the time and spends the money to beautify his home, he is more considerate of others and more appreciative of his fellowmen than he would otherwise be. This beautification and adornment is giving us all a keener sense of the just, and making us all the more anxious to deal justly with our fellows—which should be the real aim of all.—Columbus Dispatch.

Now city authorities have taken to inhibiting by ordinance and traffic rules the spot lights on automobiles. If we ever hear about the enforcement we will deliciously chronicle that too.

Father Beaver Follows Advice

WAS FATHER BEAVER suggested that Father Beaver try the magic circle and see if that wouldn't get his raft over the dam where it was stuck, Father Beaver was not very pleased. You remember he had tried that magic circle business once before and had been disappointed, and it was not much wonder he didn't care to try again. Father Beaver didn't care to get fooled the same way twice any more than you or I do.

But there was a funny look in Policeman Billy's eye when he made the suggestion; there was no doubt about that. And Father Beaver thought that Policeman Billy might, just might, know what he was talking about. "Very well," said he, "let's go try."

"There's no 'let's' about it," replied Policeman Billy, "you have to go by yourself. The magic circle won't work it more than one goes." "All right, then," laughed Father Beaver. "I'll go myself. But you'll see that it won't work, Policeman Billy. And when it doesn't work, don't you dare laugh at me, don't you dare!" Father Beaver shook his head solemnly at Policeman Billy and Grayell. You see he didn't like to be laughed at any more than the next fellow!

They promised that they wouldn't and Father Beaver set off in the direction of the magic circle. And as he slipped along from shadow to shadow, he thought about that look on Policeman Billy's face; that look that seemed to promise that this magic wish would come true.

"He asked me if I could possibly get that raft off the dam," thought Father Beaver. "and of course I can't. Now what does he mean by that?" And just at that minute, Father Beaver remembered what could make one himself, the wish to get the raft off the dam would be granted because Father Beaver couldn't do it himself. That idea excited Father Beaver so that he forgot all about Hoot, the Owl, and ran pell mell, through moonshine and shadow to the magic circle.

He forgot all about Hoot, the Owl, and ran pell mell, through moonshine.

He crept inside, turned around three times to the left, three times to the right, shook his front paw and said, "Shooons, shooons, book-ins, get my raft off the dam!" And that very minute it began to rain!

APPETITE AND HEALTH

Loss of appetite is a sure sign of ill health.

"Those who take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People as a tonic invariably say that their improvement began with a noticeable increase in the appetite. When you are sick and your vitality is low your appetite fails. Nothing tastes good. You take no pleasure in your meals. Under such circumstances good digestion is impossible. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills tone up the entire system, the blood is enriched and good red blood is essential to normal digestion. The glands that secrete the digestive fluids are strengthened, not merely stimulated, and you once more enjoy a good appetite. Looking forward pleasantly to meal time is the first sign of returning health, strength and vitality.

What to eat then becomes a problem and it is solved by the diet book that the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Scarborough, N. Y., has recently sent you on request. It gives the relative digestibility of different foods, gives the proper diet in various diseases and is a handy book to have.

The price of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is fifty cents per box. Your own druggist sells them or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price.

G. O. P. "WORKERS" HOLD AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Members of the Scioto County Republican Executive and Central committees, county candidates and several precinct workers held an organization "Love Feast" Saturday evening at the Republican club rooms. Speeches praising Republican victory in both the state and nation were made by Hon. Charles E. Hard, vice chairman of the State Republican Executive committee; Hon. Randolph Archer, state treasurer, and Hon. Charles C. Kearns, congressman from the Sixth district.

Dr. Frank H. Williams, well known physician, it was announced, had been selected and had consented to serve as a member of the State Executive committee.

Charles W. Wilson, chairman of the Central committee, opened the meeting with a short business session at which committees for two precincts were selected. Leo York was elected to serve in Precinct K, of the Fourth ward, in place of John Clark, who moved to Detroit, Mich. Frank Bennett was appointed in Precinct A, Fourth ward, to succeed Al Yeager, who moved to another precinct.

The committeemen and workers gathered at the hall early and shortly after eight o'clock were seated at the banquet tables, which were in the shape of a huge U. The speakers and county candidates were at the base of the U.

John F. Eckhart, chairman of the executive committee, presided. The Aeolian Quartet rendered several selections and then the feast was served by a dozen white-coated waiters. Jake Pfau served the feast.

The menu included: Oyster cocktail, fruit salad, potato salad, sandwiches, roast mutton, celery, radishes, pickles, brown bread, cranberry sauce, oyster dressing, baked beans, coffee and cakes. An ovation was paid Mr. Pfau for the feast served.

One of the most striking songs rendered by the Aeolian Quartet was a parody on the principal candidates for the November election. It was:

Our country once was proud and great
And stood for what was right
But since the Democrats got in
We've been too proud to fight.
The Democratic rooster
Flaps his wings and starts to crow
But when it comes to fight
He runs from little Mexico.

Ohio has a senator
Who's making a campaign
And says the people surely ought
To send him back again.
He's got a funny Chinese name
It's Alton Pomeroy
But wait until he runs against
The Herrick submarine.

We thought that Jimmie Cox was
Licked
So bad a while ago
That he would never have the
nerve
To think he had a show.
We'll bury him so deep next time
That he'll be sure to stay
And be the last one to report
Upon the judgment day.

Chorus
Vote for Hughes and Fairbanks
Tra La La La La La
Vote for Hughes and Fairbanks
Tra La La La La La La La La
Get into the game and follow the
crowd
And fall right into line
Oh, join the grand old party, boys
Come in; in the water's fine.

The speakers of the evening were introduced by Chairman John F. Eckhart.

"Your chairman has paid too high a tribute to me as an orator," declared Hon. Randolph Archer, candidate for reelection on the Republican ticket for state treasurer, on being introduced for a short talk. "I am no platform talker but I am a good Republican."

Thankful For Loyal Support
"I want to take this opportunity to thank the Republicans of Scioto county for their good loyal support accorded me in my campaigns. In all, this is the fourth time I have been a candidate. I ran in 1910 when we all made a noble and earnest effort but were licked. In 1912 I was a candidate again, when it was a foregone conclusion that we would be licked before we started. But we all stayed on the ticket and made the race.

make a speech but came with your townsman, Mr. Charles Hard, to pay my respects to the Scioto county Republicans for their support given me and to say that Ohio is going Republican in November. But it will not go Republican unless you men here tonight put your shoulder to the wheel and work as you have never worked before. In 1896, at the time when we all remember that W. J. Bryan would have been elected president, if the Republicans had not put their shoulders to the wheel and worked. The 16 to 1 silver craze was the basis of this campaign. Free Silver as I recall it. At this time I was working at a glass house in Bellaire—I was a glass blower then. I remember that I had a young man catching for me. He was getting all of the gold dollars he could get hold of. One day I asked him: "What are you going to do with them?" He said: "If Bryan is elected I will get 16 dollars for every one of them."

"Now the Democratic party flushed with the success of prosperity caused by the great struggle, is seeking the re-election of Wilson. Every one knows that in 1913 and 1914 during the first two years of the administration that there were more idle freight cars on sidings throughout the United States than ever before. In Cleveland, the Cleveland Leader had opened soup houses and means were taken to care for the unemployed. Steel plants were closed, factories were operating on slack time. Then along came the war and the transformation was sudden. But as one citizen to another, "After the war, what?"

Clubs Gave The Victory
"Our election was won in 1896 by the formation of William McKinley clubs. There are men in this room tonight who will remember them. At Bellaire, I was asked to go to the employees and get them to sign for the McKinley club and this was done. The campaign will be won by personal contact and it is up to the committeemen to do the work.

Stricken with heart failure while in his office in Clifton Forge Sunday afternoon, J. A. Fox, aged 52 years, for years superintendent of the Cincinnati division of the C. & O., with headquarters in Ashland, Ky., died before he could be removed to his hotel. A physician was summoned and he attributed Mr. Fox's unexpected death to heart trouble.

Mr. Fox had been in his usual health and after eating a hearty dinner yesterday he went to his office to look after several matters that demanded his immediate attention.

Without warning he pitched forward and fell to the floor. Mr. Fox just two weeks ago was made superintendent of the Clifton Forge division of the C. & O. He was well known all along the C. & O. line and was a man highly esteemed for his many admirable qualities. Before taking his departure from Ashland, employees there of Mr. Fox presented him with a solid gold watch chain and charm.

Mr. Fox is survived by a wife and several children. One son, B. J. Fox, is employed as a civil engineer on the new C. & O. bridge work at Sciotoville. He was summoned home last night.

One of the largest Republican meetings of the fall campaign will be held Friday evening, November 3, when United States Senator Warren G. Harding will come to this city for an address, according to an announcement made at the Republican gathering Saturday evening by D. Willard Gustin, secretary of the Republican Executive committee. This meeting will formally close the campaign in this county.

The club will hold a torchlight procession, going to the evening train to meet the distinguished speaker and escort him to Distel hall, Seventh and Chillicothe streets, where the speech will be made.

The first meeting of the Hughes Club was held at the steel plant Saturday afternoon.

It was not that the miners disliked Roosevelt. They were for Wilson and wanted the world to know it.

Alfred stepped outside, when Alfred Schaefer noticed that the fellow had failed to endorse the check. He suspected also that the check was no good, so he hurriedly called up Mr. Seymour, who pronounced it as worthless. The negro was called in and informed as to what Mr. Seymour had said. He promptly offered to go with Mr. Schaefer to Seymour's home to see about the matter. Mr. Schaefer started with him, but after rounding the corner of Third and Market streets, and finding Third street rather dark, Mr. Schaefer concluded the man might suddenly attack him and permitted him to go, quietly ensued. The check was then accepted, the negro purchasing a sack of flour and receiving the balance in change. He had scarcely resulted.

ALLEY HOUSE BURNS

Fire Sunday afternoon destroyed a three-room alley house and all contents in the rear of the Jesse Wymer home, 1275 Ninth street. The cottage was occupied by Robert Bumgardner, laborer at the steel plant. Mrs. Bumgardner had finished preparing her husband's dinner and turned out the gas fire in the kitchen stove. She left about 2:30 o'clock for a visit with friends and at 3:30 the house was discovered in flames by Clare Jones, a young lad who lives several doors west of the Wymer home. Young Jones was out in his back-yard when he saw the flames shooting through the roof and he gave the alarm.

Not a single piece of furniture was saved from the three rooms. Bumgardner carried no insurance, but Wymer who owned the house, has his loss covered by insurance.

The firemen did good work after arriving on the scene. Fire Chief George Koerner gave a gas leak as the cause of the fire.

UP GOES PRICE OF MILK IN PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 16.—Two large distributors raised the price of milk from eight cents to nine cents a quart in this city today. Many others declare they will be obliged to take similar action before the end of the week. Farmers throughout the different sections which supply this city have organized to advance the price to distributors to five and a half cents.

Governor Brumbaugh has declared his intention of appointing a commission to investigate the milk situation in conjunction with similar commissions to be appointed by the governors of Maryland, New Jersey and Delaware.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 16.—Milk prices are being advanced in many of the smaller cities of Western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and West Virginia following an increase in price by the farmers who market their milk in Pittsburgh. At New Castle, Pa., milk will be nine cents instead of eight beginning November 1, and at Alliance, Ohio, the second advance in two months was put into effect today when dealers also demanded nine cents a quart. At Clarkburg, W. Va., the town association of milk distributors has increased the price ten to twelve cents a quart and other west communities are facing a like advance.

OBITUARY

John J. McCall
Death for the third time within a year invaded a well-known East End family and ended a long and useful career in the passing away of John J. McCall, aged 72 years, at his home No. 719 Campbell avenue, Sunday noon.

Mr. McCall never rallied from the effects of the paralytic stroke he suffered on Friday night. For the past three years he had been suffering with heart trouble.

Mr. McCall was born March 18, 1844, at Gallia Furnace, in Gallia county, O., the fourth of a family of twelve children. His father, Hugh McCall, was a collier. The family later lived at Jefferson Furnace for a year and then moved to South Webster. There John Jay attended school until he was twenty and then engaged in store-keeping at Clinton Furnace. After six months spent there he located at Washington, where he remained for six and a half years. He then went to Center Furnace, Lawrence county, and clerked for one year and a half. In 1873 he located in Oak Hill and engaged in the mercantile business. He remained there for eighteen months and then returned to South Webster and opened a general store with his older brother, Asaph, as partner. He, himself, took to the road as salesman for Eisman & Company, of Portsmouth, while the brother looked after the active management of their business in South Webster, and traveled for nine years. In 1885 he moved back to South Webster and remained there until December 1891, when he returned to Portsmouth and opened a grocery at No. 717 Campbell avenue, which stand he conducted ever since. Mr. McCall a few years ago served one term as city treasurer. He was a good citizen, kind and devoted husband and father and true lover of home life. He was a member of Bigelow church and was also a member of Aurora Lodge of Masons of this city and Royal Arch Chapter of Jackson, O.

Mr. McCall was twice married. On January 1, 1873, he married Susan Cole, of South Webster, who died January 5, 1884. Of this union four children were born. They were: Dolly McCall, who died October 26, last year; Hattie, who passed away January 25 this year, and Misses Nell and Ada McCall, who survive and are at the family home. In May, 1885, Mr. McCall married Augusta M. Griffith, of Corvado, W. Va., who survives him with all four of the children born to them. They are: Mrs. Edith Bailey and Miss Jean McCall, of Cleveland; Mrs. Gussie Tinsley, of this city, and Dudley McCall at home. He also leaves one brother, Dr. F. O. McCall, of this city, and two sisters, Misses Margaret and Stella McCall, of South Webster.

The funeral will take place from the bereaved home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Revs. C. E. Chandler and J. W. Dillon will conduct the services. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery.

Frank P. Treat, Sr.
After an illness covering a period of two years, death at 2:10 Sunday morning claimed Frank P. Treat, Sr., who passed to his final reward at the family residence, 530 Front street. He had been in a serious condition for many weeks and his relatives and many friends were prepared for the worst. A postmortem examination held Sunday evening by four physicians revealed a cancerous condition in the stomach of Mr. Treat, which eventually ended in his death.

Frank Pierce Treat was born in this city October 5, 1857, and he spent all his life in the River City. He was a carpenter and in his earlier days did much diving in the Ohio river and other nearby streams. In addition to his faithful and loving

BESSIE BARRISCALL, LOUISE GLAUM AND CHARLES RAY IN "HOME," LATEST TRIANGLE PLAY.

Opening Bill At The New Columbia Today

Marking their first appearance together, Bessie Barriscall and Charles Ray will be seen as co-stars at the opening of the New Columbia theatre today (Monday) when they are presented in a seriocomic Triangle-lease play by C. Gardner Sullivan, entitled "Home." Since the inception of the Triangle program these two popular players have been seen in nothing but strongly dramatic offerings; hence unusual interest attaches to their work in this production, which is of a lighter vein.

"Home" is the story of a girl who devotes her efforts to saving her family from the evils of a too suddenly-acquired wealth and who nearly sacrifices her own life's happiness in succeeding. It is replete with comedy situations, although its fundamental theme is based on a big, serious idea. It narrates the experiences of a sensible girl upon her return from a European finishing school and shows how she cleverly awakens her kin to realization of their mistake.

Miss Barriscall is seen as Bessie Wheaton, the girl who is confronted with the difficult task, and her performance is said to mark another step in her remarkable advancement toward versatility as a screen star.

In the part of Bob Wheaton, whom the unhappy girl finds to be a fool, Ray is declared to prove that he is as happily cast in light comedy as he is in heavy drama. His ready appreciation of every opportunity is manifest, it is said, in each scene.

"The Winning Punch," one of the best Keystone comedies ever made, will also be shown on Monday's opening program.

New York, Oct. 16.—In a wireless message from the Danish steamship Helligsolv received here by agents of the Scandinavian American line, Captain Holst, master of the ship, stated that no submarine had been sighted during the voyage so far.

Observers aboard the White Star steamship Boyie on the steamer's arrival here Saturday reported they had seen the periscope of a submarine Friday morning when about 200 miles out and that the submarine was apparently in pursuit of the Helligsolv eastward bound.
